Explanatory Note

Bureaucratic red tape is the rope that strangles government operations. Red tape stifles business operations, restrains economic growth, and delays service delivery. Governments aspiring to dispense public services in the most judicious, transparent, effective and efficient way possible should not leave room for bureaucratic bottlenecks to take root.

Despite the enactment of Republic Act No. 9485, or the Anti-Red Tape Act of 2007, remnants of red tape still persist in government and business transactions in the country. The most flagrant of its kind can be gleaned from the sheer number of identification cards issued by various government agencies for analogous and divergent purposes. To illustrate the point, Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas has already identified twenty-one (21) types of government-issued identification cards that can be used for financial transactions<sup>1</sup>. This proliferation of redundant government-issued identification cards not only causes unnecessary spending for the government and unwarranted burden and delays for the public; it also jeopardizes the security and privacy of the individual with regard to their personal information.

This bill seeks to institutionalize a unified Filipino Identification (ID) system to address such delays and wastage. Through the adoption of a single identification system to transact with any government or business entity in the country, individuals will not have to pay more or wait longer just to avail of public or private services. Additionally, government agencies will not have to undergo tedious bidding processes and spend millions of taxpayers' money to issue redundant identification cards to their clientele.

Furthermore, it provides access to better services from institutions like private businesses, local government units (LGUs), Philippine Health Insurance Corporation (PHILHEALTH) and the Information and Communication Technology Office (ICTO)/Department of Information and Communications Technology (DICT). The bill allows LGUs and private business entities to incorporate benefits and privileges with the Filipino ID card. The bill also provides for additional features to be granted to all individuals enrolled in the Filipino Identification system, like the automatic enrolment in the PHILHEALTH program and increased internet connection speed for Free Public Wi-Fi subscribers.

A unified identification system, armed with all available technological advances of our time, can improve service delivery, reduce government and personal expenditures, mitigate security and privacy risks, and improve overall government policy formulation and program development while impeding efforts to undermine the system through fraud and other criminal acts.

To faithfully comply with the state policy of ensuring the prosperity and independence of the nation and freedom of the people from poverty, public and private service transactions should be simplified, fraudulent transactions and misrepresentation averted, and bureaucratic red tape should be curtailed.

Towards this end, the swift passage of this bill is earnestly sought.

THEREFOR, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

1       SECTION 1. Short Title. – This Act shall be known as the “Filipino Identification System
2     Act of 2016.”

3       SEC. 2. Declaration of Policy and Objectives. – It is the policy of the State to promote a
4     just and dynamic social order that shall ensure the prosperity and independence of the nation and
5     free the people from poverty through policies that provide adequate social services, and
6     improved quality life for all. Towards this end, a unified identification system shall be
7     established to simplify public and private services transactions, to avert fraudulent transactions
8     and misrepresentations, and to curtail the perennial problem of bureaucratic red tape in 9     Philippine government agencies.

10       SEC. 3. The Filipino Identification System. – The Filipino Identification System herein
11     referred to as the “Filipino ID System” is hereby established and instituted as an economic and 12     social tool towards the attainment of a progressive society through efficient services for all
13     Filipinos. The identification system shall provide official identification of all citizens of the 14     Republic of the Philippines through the issuance of the national identification number and 15     Filipino Identification Card. It shall gradually concert and consolidate all existing Government-
16     initiated identification systems into an integrated and efficient identification system.

17       SEC. 4. Filipino Identification System Components. – The Filipino ID System shall be 18     comprised of the following key elements: (a) Common Reference Number (CRN), which is a
19     unique number assigned to the individual; (b) Filipino Identification Card, which is the physical 20     medium issued to the individual to convey essential information about the person's identity; and 21     (c) Filipino Citizen Registry, which is the collection of records and information about individuals
22     enrolled in the Filipino ID System.

23       SEC. 5. Common Reference Number. – The CRN shall serve as the national identification
24     number of the person. It is a unique and permanent number to be assigned to each Filipino by the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA). It shall be used as a standard number for the individual across all agencies of the government.

The issuance of the CRN shall be done after checking for uniqueness of the person's identity through the person's biometrics data. However, when biometrics data is not yet applicable like in cases when the person is still a child, the generation of CRN shall be based on the person's birth certificate maintained by the PSA.

The PSA shall establish a direct linkage between the CRN and the person's birth record in the PSA's civil registry database.

SEC. 6. *The Filipino Identification Card. – Every Filipino, whether residing in the Philippines or abroad, is mandated to secure a non-transferrable Filipino Identification Card (Filipino ID card) bearing information on the owner's identity. In particular, the Filipino ID card shall contain the owner's imprinted photograph, full name, present address, date and place of birth, sex, civil status, signature, CRN and date of card issuance.

The Filipino ID card shall be made of tamper-proof security material. It shall also have the capability to store the biometrics data of the individual card owner. Likewise, the card's physical characteristics shall also consider the card owner's possible use of the ID card in conducting secure electronic transactions.

SEC. 7. *The Filipino Citizen Registry. – The PSA as repository of all data shall create and maintain a Filipino Citizen Registry that will contain the registered records and information of persons issued with a Filipino ID card. The PSA as the main issuing authority of the official Filipino ID card shall institute the necessary measures to safeguard the information provided in the Filipino ID card. No such information shall be released to any person, agency, office or instrumentality, government or otherwise, except in cases stipulated in Section 11 of this Act.

The information in the Filipino Citizen Registry shall be categorized in a manner that allows proper safeguards in data access, security and change management.

SEC. 8. *Registration and Enrollment into the Filipino Identification System. – After the approval of this Act and upon full operation of the Filipino ID System, every Filipino shall register and enroll into the Filipino ID System at the PSA-designated Filipino ID Registration Center nearest the place of residence. 6 card shall be free of charge as part of the government's social service responsibility. The renewal
7 of the Filipino ID card upon reaching eighteen (18) years of age and sixty (60) years of age shall 14 be responsible for the safekeeping of the Filipino ID card.

15 SEC. 9. *Change in Material Information. – Any person who intends to effect changes in 16 the material information previously supplied and currently maintained in the Filipino ID System
17 shall have the duty to inform the Local Civil Registry Office, Embassy, or Consular Office

23 released information.

24 The PSA may also use the list of CRNs to obtain administrative data being maintained by 25 other agencies for additional statistical compilation. Administrative data granted to PSA through 26 the CRNs shall not be made part of the Registry nor the Filipino ID System. Such data, which 27 shall also be covered by confidentiality provisions under Republic Act No. 10625, shall purely 28 be for the purpose of generating statistical summaries without reference or identification of any 29 specific individual.
