HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Introduced by Representative Rufus B. Rodriguez

House Bill No. 3816

EXPLANATORY NOTE

At present, Republic Act 9064, known as the Sports Incentives Act, confines the awarding of cash bonuses to medal winners in the Olympics, World Championships, Asian Games and SEA Games. Similarly, coaches and trainers of athletes involved in these competitions are the only ones entitled to cash bonuses. Athletes and coaches of athletes who won medals in international competitions outside of these tournaments are not entitled to bonuses from the government.

It is high time that athletes representing the country in other international competitions similar to the four competitions mentioned above also be recognized and be given bonuses for bringing pride and honor to the Philippines. Athletes like the Philippine Dragon Boat team who continuously win in various international tournaments like the Asian Beach Games.

Further, athletes competing in the Paralympic Games should also be included in the coverage of Republic Act 9064.

Also, athletes participating in sports that are excluded in the Olympic program like billiards, bowling and chess should also be given recognition upon bringing home medals from international tournaments.

Past achievements in these non-Olympic sports omitted. There should be no discrimination in sports and equality must be applied to our deserving athletes, whose victories in international competitions and championships inspire and unify our people.

In view of the foregoing, immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
