HOUSE BILL NO. 2386

AN ACT ENSURING THE FUNDAMENTAL EQUALITY OF MEN AND WOMEN, AMENDING FOR
THE PURPOSE ARTICLES 14, 96, 124, 211 AND 255 OF EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 209
OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE FAMILY CODE OF THE PHILIPPINES

Introduced by REP. HENEDINA RAZON- ABAD

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Article II Section 14 of the Constitution recognizes the role of women in nation-building, and ensures the fundamental equality before the law of women and men. Section 12 of Republic Act No. 9710, otherwise known as the Magna Carta of Women provides that existing laws that are discriminatory to women shall be reviewed, amended and/or repealed. The foregoing notwithstanding, the Family Code is still rife with discriminatory provisions.

Article 14 gives undue preference to the father over the mother in giving consent to marriage of the son or daughter. While Articles 96 and 124 provide joint administration by the husband and wife of the absolute community property and the conjugal partnership of gains, the law gives preference to the decision of the husband in case of disagreement. Articles 211 and 225 give joint parental authority over the person and legal guardianship over the property of the common children to both parents. Again, in case of disagreement, the father's decision is given preference.

This bill seeks to rectify the inequalities in Article 14, 96, 124, 211 and 225 of the Family Code by eliminating patent discrimination against women in matters relating to marriage and family relations. It also mandates that the best interest of the family and children shall be considered in making decisions on matters involving the exercise of parental authority and the administration of properties during the marriage.

In view of the foregoing reasons, the immediate passage of this bill is urgently sought.
