HOUSE BILL No. 1050

Introduced By: REPRESENTATIVE ARNULF BRYAN "ARNIE" B. FUENTEBELLA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Philippine High School for the Arts (PHSA) is a specialized public high school in the Philippines created by virtue of Presidential Decree No. 1287. It offered arts-focused general secondary level education program, combined with a special curriculum oriented to the arts and geared towards the early recognition and development of highly talented, exceptionally gifted students in the arts.

The PHSA has successfully produced notable alumni like the famous pianist Rowenna Arrieta, Leila Florentino, a singer who played a leading role in the Broadway-run Miss Saigon,, Candice Adea, then principal dancer of Ballet Philippines, Raymond Red, filmmaker and recipient of Palme d'Or Award at the 2000 Cannes Festival for his short film "Anino", John Cinco, Professor of Computer Graphics at Farleigh Dickinson University and many others.

However, since its creation in 1978, a similar specialized public high school for the arts program has not been established in any part of the country limiting in the process the chances of many exceptionally gifted students to be discovered and harness their talents, particularly those in far-flung areas.

This bill therefore seeks to establish a high school for the arts program in San Rafael High School located at Barangay San Rafael, Municipality of Tigaon, Province of Camarines Sur to be known as the San Rafael High School for the Arts Program in order to replicate the enviable accomplishments of the PHSA, and its lasting contribution in the field of arts.

The establishment of the San Rafael High School for the Arts Program will certainly open windows of opportunity to highly talented and exceptionally gifted students in the arts not only in the Province of Camarines Sur but in the entire Bicol Region as well. It is intended to attain the following objectives:

- (a) To recruit and screen students with special talents in the arts;
- (b) To provide a special and elite arts program for highly talented and specially gifted children in a separate school site, which is already available for the purpose; and
- (c) To create a dedicated group to manage the implementation of the program, which will include the development of facilities and recruitment of trainers.

The paramount objective of the program is to provide a continuing source of artists of excellence and leaders in the preservation and promotion of Filipino heritage in the arts.

In view of the foregoing reasons, the approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
