AN ACT

EXPANDING THE COVERAGE OF INCENTIVES EXTENDED TO NATIONAL ATHLETES, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF REPUBLIC ACT NO. 9064, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE 'NATIONAL ATHLETES, COACHES AND TRAINERS BENEFITS AND INCENTIVES ACT OF 2001', AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Republic Act No. 9064 or 'The Sports Benefits and Incentives Act of 2001' was passed into law with the aim of extending monetary and non-monetary incentives to our national athletes who earn medals in international sports competitions sanctioned by the international Olympic Committee (IOC). Republic Act No. 9064 was seen as a landmark piece of legislation that gave our unsung sports heroes the recognition they rightfully deserve.

In recent years, however, there have been a handful of other athletes who have equally brought pride and honor to our country by winning in other international sports competitions sanctioned by bodies other than the International Olympic Committee. Unfortunately, these athletes do not enjoy the benefits provided in Republic Act No. 9064 since they are excluded from its coverage.

This Bill seeks to correct this by amending the provisions of Republic Act No. 9064 to include within its purview athletes who complete in equally prestigious international sports competitions that are sanctioned by other international sports organizations or federations. The amendment to the present law is necessary to ensure that all national athletes are treated and considered equally regardless of the competitions they compete in.

In view of the foregoing reasons, the expeditious passage of this proposed measure earnestly sought.
