AN ACT
REQUIRING USED CAR DEALERS TO PROVIDE CONSUMERS WITH A WRITTEN
WARRANTY AGAINST DEFECTS AND REQUIRING PRIVATE SELLERS TO DISCLOSE
ANY KNOWN USE OR SAFETY DEFECTS

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Constitution, Article 16, Section 9 states that:

The State shall protect consumers from trade malpractices and from substandard or hazardous products.

The recently passed Philippine Lemon Law¹ declares as policy that:

It is hereby declared the policy of the State to promote full protection to the rights of consumers in the sale of motor vehicles against business and trade practices which are deceptive, unfair or otherwise inimical to consumers and the public interest.

The State recognizes that a motor vehicle is a major consumer purchase or investment. Hence, the rights of consumers should be clearly defined, including the means for redress for violations thereof.

In the Philippines, the purchase of a new car usually carries a manufacturer's warranty. On the other hand, vendors of used cars do not usually issue any express warranty. While the new Philippine Lemon Law protects buyers of brand new cars, it's far more common for used-car buyers to get stuck with used-cars with defects. A "used car", also known as a pre-owned vehicle and second hand car, is a vehicle that previously had one or more owners. Used cars are usually sold through car dealers, leasing companies, auctions and private party sales.

Since brand new cars are still considered prohibitive for the middle class, many resort to purchasing used cars. Unfortunately, without mechanical expertise, buyers cannot easily distinguish which used cars have defects. Vendors are not required to disclose the history of the cars they sell. Thus, many used cars though seemingly in good running condition, could have been improperly maintained or poorly repaired, been unprofessionally rebuilt after a collision or tampered with in some manner to conceal high mileage, mechanical defects, corrosion or other damage. Some of these used lemons are even sold fraudulently, preying on the most vulnerable, low-income car purchasers of the population.

This bill seeks to protect consumers who buy used vehicles from a dealer or private party. It requires dealers to provide consumers with a written warranty against defects that impair the vehicle's use or safety, and requires private parties to disclose any known use or safety defects.

Dealer warranties cannot be waived under any circumstances. The dealer must give a signed, dated, correct copy of the limited used vehicle warranty at the time you purchase the vehicle. The warranty requires the dealer to repair any defect that impairs the vehicle's use or safety. The coverage depends on the mileage of the vehicle at the time of purchase as outlined below:

Mileage	Warranty Period
Less than 64,500 km.	90 days or 6,035 km., whichever comes first
64,500 to 128,746 km.	60 days or 4,023 km., whichever comes first
128,747 to 201,167 km	30 days or 2,012 km., whichever comes first
201,168 km. or over	No express warranty

If the true mileage of the vehicle is unknown at the time of the sale, the warranty period is calculated according to the age of the vehicle as outlined below:

Age of Vehicle	Warranty Period
3 years old or less	90 days or 6,035 km., whichever comes first
More than 3 and less than 6 years old	60 days or 4,023 km., whichever comes first
More than 6 years old	30 days or 2,012 km., whichever comes first

Though our country allows private enterprises and individuals to enter into contracts freely, the state should come in when necessary to protect the interests of the consumer, promote his general welfare and establish standards of conduct for business and industry.²

5 above-mentioned reasonable allowance for use;

6 F. A used motor vehicle shall not be considered out of service for purposes of the ten
7 business-day period described hereinabove for any day in which a part necessary to repair a
8 defect complained of is not in the dealer's possession; provided, however, that the dealer has 9 ordered the part by reasonable means on the same day on which he knew or should have known
10 that the part was necessary, except that in no event shall a part's unavailability operate to toll the 11 ten business-day period for more than twenty-one days. The applicable warranty period shall be 12 extended by the number of days a part is unavailable;

13 SECTION 7. Option of vendor to repurchase vehicle. –

14 At any time within the applicable warranty period and after a consumer has complained 15 of a defect, notwithstanding any objection from the consumer, the dealer shall have the option of 16 repurchasing a used vehicle and refunding the full repurchase price, less a reasonable allowance
17 for use. A reasonable allowance for use shall be fifteen cents for each mile the used motor 18 vehicle had been operated between its sale and the dealer's repurchase.

19 If the dealer is required to or elects to repurchase a vehicle under the terms of this section, 20 the consumer and dealer shall cooperate with each other to execute all necessary documents in 21 order to clear the title of any encumbrances on the repurchased vehicle.

1 SECTION 8. Private sellers. — A private seller shall clearly disclose to any prospective
2 buyer, before the sale is completed, all defects the seller knows of which impair the used motor
3 vehicle's safety or substantially impair its use. Failure to so disclose known defects shall entitle
4 the buyer, within thirty days after the sale, to rescind the sale and be entitled to return of all
5 monies paid to the seller less a reasonable amount for use as defined in clause (iv) of paragraph
6 (A) subsection (3). A reasonable allowance for use shall be ten pesos per kilometer the motor 7 vehicle had been operated between its sale and the seller's repurchase.

8 In any subsequent action by a buyer under this section, it shall be an affirmative defense
9 in any such action that an alleged defect does not impair the vehicle's safety, or substantially
10 impair its use, or that it is the result of the buyer's negligence, abuse, damage caused by accident,
11 vandalism or attempt to modify the vehicle.

12 SECTION 9. Implementing Agency and its duties. — The DTI Secretary shall, within 13 sixty (60) days from the effectivity of this Act, promulgate rules and regulations, including those 14 of disciplinary nature, to carry out and enforce the provisions of this Act. Further, the DTI shall 15 be the lead agency in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

17 subdivisions and local government units, including government-owned and controlled
18 corporations, shall render such assistance as required by the DTI in order to effectively
19 implement the provisions of this Act.

20 SECTION. 11. Penalties. — The dealer adjudged to have violated the provisions in this 21 act shall be liable to pay a minimum amount of One hundred thousand pesos (P100,000.00) as

1 damages to the aggrieved party without prejudice to any civil or criminal liability they and/or the
2 responsible officer may incur under existing laws.

3 Any private seller adjudged to have violated the provisions in section 7 shall be liable to 4 pay a minimum amount of Fifty thousand pesos (P50,000.00) as damages to the aggrieved party
5 without prejudice to any civil or criminal liability they and/or the responsible officer may incur
6 under existing laws.

7 SECTION 12. Other Remedies. – No provision of this Act shall be construed to limit the 8 remedies available to the dealer or buyer under any other provision of law.

9 SECTION 13. Separability Clause. – If any provision or part hereof is held invalid or 10 unconstitutional, the same shall not affect the validity and effectivity of the other provisions 11 hereof.

12 SECTION 14. Repealing Clause. – All laws, decrees, orders, and issuances, or portions
13 thereof, which are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed, amended or 14 modified accordingly.
