EXPLANATORY NOTE

Education is a vital human right, enshrined in the 1987 Philippine Constitution and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Every girl and every boy should have the right to a quality education in order that they can have more chances in life, including employment opportunities, better health, and to participate in social progress.

This bill seeks to improve the quality of education, address the growing population of students in the 2nd District of North Cotabato as well as to increase the number of national high schools in the district. The 2nd district public school system currently has 11 national high schools, which is relatively low compared to the 1st and 2nd districts which have 19 and 17 national high schools respectively.

In line with the constitutional mandate to make quality education accessible to all, the immediate enactment of this measure is earnestly sought.
