HOUSE BILL NO. 1770

Introduced by HON. LUIS RAYMUND "LRAY" F. VILLAFUERTE, JR.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

It is the intention of this bill to ensure the safety and security in higher education institutions and technical vocational institutions in the country through the establishment of a Crime Prevention Committee (CPC). The CPC, as the bill proposes, is mandated to formulate policies and programs against theft, robbery, rape and other forms of violence within and outside campuses and school premises and conduct seminars on crime and drug prevention and control. Further, the bill proposes to create a Crime Prevention Strategy that shall be produced by the CPC and reviewed and approved by the Commission on Higher Education and the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority to help prevent criminal activities on- and off-campus.

The opening of classes in June 2017 brought about nearly 27 million students in both public and private institutions<sup>1</sup>—the young generation who are set to become the future of this country. However, with news of deaths of promising students due to hazing incidences in recent years, from the De La Salle – College of St. Benilde<sup>2</sup> to the University of Santo Tomas<sup>3</sup>, and recurring natural and man-made calamities, this prompted the urgency for strengthened security in educational institutions. With security concerns looming over the nation—a possible threat of terrorism as well as insurgency in the South<sup>4</sup>—law enforcement agencies are working double time to fight unrest for everyone, young and old. Acting on the State's mandate to protect the youth, this bill hopes to be a solution to the trouble in the country's school system.

The approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
