First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 1083

Introduced by: HON. "KUYA" JOSE ANTONIO R. SY-ALVARADO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

We often say that Teaching is the noblest profession yet our teachers who chose to stay in the country are being forgotten and not getting enough salary and benefits.

This bill seeks to amend Republic Act No. 4670 otherwise known as "The Magna Carta for Public School Teachers" to make the said law more responsive in promoting the welfare of the public-school teachers.

RA No. 4670 was passed into law on June 18, 1966 and has remained untouched for more than fifty (50) years. The stability of the said law shows that it has been effective in promoting and improving the social and economic status of public school teachers, their living and working conditions, their terms of employment and career prospects.

The passage of time has brought with it new challenges and circumstances that must be dealt with by the public school teachers. Admittedly, the risks in connection with the teaching profession fifty (50) years ago are not the same as in the present times. Support must be given to the public-school teachers for them to successfully hurdle such obstacles and keep them focused in helping the students gain the knowledge they need in life.

There is no need to repeal RA No. 4670. Only needed are minor modifications and some amendments to further strengthen the law. Others may say that the new benefits and protection for public school teacher adds pressure to the government. This is not the proper attitude since no price tag should be attached when it comes to helping the public school teachers who are vital partners of the government in building a strong and well educated society. Expenditures upon them are very wise investment for the future.

In view if the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
