AN ACT
CREATING THE CONGRESSIONAL OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE ON THE NATIONAL BUDGET

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The delineation of powers of the legislative and executive branches of the government in the national budget is clearly defined in the different provisions of the 1987 Constitution. Section 22, Article VII said that the President shall submit to the Congress the proposed budget, Section 24 Article VI gave to Congress the power of the purse with "all appropriation, revenue or tariff bills bills authorizing increase of the public debt, bills of local application, and private bills to originate exclusively in the House of Representatives" and "the Senate may propose or concur with amendments."

Further, the Executive Branch is tasked with the implementation of the appropriation law passed by Congress, through Section 17, Article VII that said, "The President shall have control of all the executive departments, bureaus, and offices. He shall ensure that the laws be faithfully executed."

Aside from these, several provisions for checks and balances for the three branches of the government are in place in the Constitution. Rules for national government budgeting were further provided in Book VI of the Administrative Code of 1987 or Executive Order No 292.

Republic Act No. 11260 or the General Appropriations Act of 2019, Section 107 provided for the creation of Joint Congressional Oversight Committee on Public Expenditures "which shall primarily monitor compliance by agencies with the requirements or conditions in the utilization of public funds under this Act and pertinent laws."¹ The Committee which shall be co-chaired by the Senate Chairperson of Finance and the House of Representatives Committee on Appropriations was last chaired on the 17th Congress by Senator Loren Legarda and Congressman Rolando Andaya.

The Supreme Court ruled in the case ABAKADA Guro Party List et. Al. vs. Cesar V. Purisima et. al (562 SCRA 287) said that the post enactment measures such as the Committee formation shall be confined to: "(i) scrutiny based primarily on Congress' power of appropriation, its power to ask heads of departments to appear before and be heard by either of its Houses and in any matter pertaining to their departments, and its power of confirmation; and (ii) investigation and monitoring of the implementation of laws pursuant to the power of the Congress to conduct inquiries in aid of legislation.”²

Despite all these, the issues of pork barrel, priority development assistance fund, and Disbursement Acceleration Program (DAP) exposed the problems and weaknesses in the actual budget process. PDAF, DAP and other similar discretionary funds did not only contravene the law but more importantly took away huge amount of public funds intended for social services for the people and realigned to projects, programs, activities and areas upon the individual discretion of selected government officials.

The Supreme Court not only declared DAP and PDAF as against the constitution but pointed out the excesses of the executive branch in realigning the budget for DAP.

While the executive reports to Congress during the budget deliberations and before the budget approval, information on how they implement the budget approved by Congress is difficult to come by once the budget is approved.

Congress needs to strengthen its oversight function in the budget process to enhance the effectiveness of the national budget towards the country’s development goals and people’s well-being. Instead of an Ad Hoc Committee created in every GAA we need a strong, permanent, Congressional oversight committee with defined powers.

This bill proposes the creation of the permanent Congressional Oversight Committee on the National Budget and defines the functions of the Committee to help stamp out corruption and ensure effective delivery of services to the people. Congress has all the right to perform its oversight function on laws it has passed including the appropriation law it passes every year.

In view of the forgoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
