

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 345

Introduced by Honorable Rodante D. Marcoleta

RESOLUTION

ENCOURAGING YOUNG FILIPINO INVENTORS TO CONTINUE BRINGING INTO BEING INNOVATIVE PRODUCTS AND IDEAS IN ORDER TO HELP BOOST THE NATIONAL ECONOMY BY PROVIDING THEM WITH MEANINGFUL AND REWARDING INCENTIVES INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO ACADEMIC CITATIONS, FINANCIAL AID, SCHOLARSHIPS AND GUARANTEED GOVERNMENT POSTS

WHEREAS, it is a declared State policy to recognize the vital role of the youth in nation-building and to promote and protect their physical, moral, spiritual, intellectual, and social well-being;

WHEREAS, the nation lost a number of homegrown talented inventors to developing countries on account of the brain drain phenomenon;

WHEREAS, the lure of a greener pasture militates against the flourishing of certain scientific fields in the country, which stunts economic growth and the nation stands to lose with the exodus of local talents;

WHEREAS, by providing young inventors a compelling reason to put their talents to a lot of good use while staying put, the national government creates a win-win situation where both the nation and the individual mutually benefit; Now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Representatives, to encourage young Filipino inventors to continue bringing into being innovative products and ideas in order to help boost the national economy by providing them with meaningful and rewarding incentives including but not limited to academic citations, financial aid, scholarships, and guaranteed government posts.

Adopted,

RODANTE D. MARCOLETA
