EXPLANATORY NOTE

The National Shrine of Our Mother of Perpetual Help is one of the largest Marian churches in the Philippines. Thousands of devotees flood the church every Wednesday to attend Mass and pray the Novena of Our Mother of Perpetual Help. This tradition of Wednesday worship by the devotees of the Mother of Perpetual Help made popular the term "Baclaran Day" in Metro Manila. During this Baclaran Day, the roads leading to the church are congested by thousands of devotees and pilgrims. The Shrine celebrates the annual feast day of the Icon of Our Mother of Perpetual Help every 27th of June, drawing more pilgrims and devotees to throng to the church.

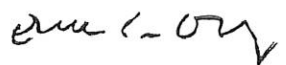

Since the Feast of the Immaculate Conception 1958, the shrine has been authorized by the Holy See to remain open 24 hours a day throughout the entire year. The shrine itself was blessed by Pope John Paul II during his first Apostolic Visit to Metro Manila in 1981.

The present modern Romanesque church is the third to be built on the same site since the second church was burned during the Japanese occupation. It took six (6) years to build the present church from the donations of the devotees and pilgrims.

The National Shrine of Our Mother of Perpetual Help, popularly known as Baclaran Church, has been part of the socio-cultural landscape of the country, particularly in Metro Manila and has been a pilgrim site among the millions of Marian devotees in the Philippines, and also attracts domestic and foreign tourists.

Henceforth, it is essential that government take the necessary steps or programs to conserve and preserve this important cultural site, and protect and secure the thousands of pilgrims and tourists flocking to Baclaran Church.

In view of the foregoing, passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
