House Bill No. 1623

Introduced by Rep. LAWRENCE LEMUEL H. FORTUN

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to repeal Republic Act No. 9439, otherwise known as "An Act Prohibiting the Detention of Patients in Hospitals and Medical Clinics on Grounds of Non-Payment of Hospital Bills or Medical Bills."

R.A. 9439 sought to prohibit the detention in hospitals and medical clinics of patients, cadavers and medical records and other related documents due to the inability of patients or the families of deceased patients to settle their hospital bills and other charges. While the law has noble intent and may have been helpful to the less-privileged, it suffers from significant inadequacies, and has thus failed to address certain situations patients or their families are thrust into during emergency cases.

The law provides that the prohibition against detention of patients or bodies of deceased patients as well as medical records and related documents does not find application in cases where a patient or deceased patient was admitted in a private room. This provision failed to anticipate situations where a patient, due to the extreme urgency of immediate medical attention and despite full knowledge of his or her financial limitations, is compelled to agree to be admitted to a private room.

The law has also failed to anticipate situations where a deceased patient, although already deceased, cannot be buried due to the refusal of the hospital or medical clinic to release medical records and other documents necessary for the issuance of a death certificate. There have been appalling experiences of burials being unduly delayed for lack of the necessary documents required for interment, thereby adding injury to the already bereaved family of the deceased.

This bill seeks to address these injustices by strengthening the rights of patients and their families against detention of patients, bodies of deceased patients and medical records by hospitals and medical clinics for failure to settle hospital bills and other medical expenses by repealing for the purpose R.A. 9439.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this measure is earnestly sought.
