EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to establish a specialty school in Cebu City to be known as the Visayas School for the Arts that shall specialize in the teaching of contemporary arts and spearhead the preservation and promotion of the traditional arts of the Visayan peoples.

Art, in its various forms, is an important part of society. It helps preserve our identity as a people and represents our common dreams and aspirations for the noblest of values and ideals. It complements the sciences in improving the quality of human life and promotes the holistic development of the nation. The Constitution considers the country's artistic and historic wealth as the cultural treasure of the nation that should be protected by the State.

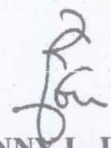

By virtue of Presidential Decree No. 1287, the Philippine Science High School for the Arts was established in Laguna. It is now considered as the leading public institution that incorporates arts subjects into the general secondary curriculum.

Access, however, into the PSHS is very limited and it is doubly difficult for students from the Visayas to gain admission therein, laying to waste precious talents from the region who do not have the option nor the wherewithal to leave the comforts of home to pursue formal training in Luzon. More so, very few parents would allow their minor children to study hundreds of miles away for very practical reasons.

Amidst this backdrop, promising talents from the Visayas, and even Mindanao, have not been developed to their fullest potential for lack of formal training. Most especially, the traditional art forms of the Visayan peoples are gradually fading away as the new generation of artists focus on mainstream arts.

It is for the above reasons that the creation of the Visayan School for the Arts is doubly important not only to develop promising artists from the Visayas but likewise to spearhead the preservation and promotion of the traditional art forms of the Visayan peoples such as the drama, balak, harana, folk dances and folk songs of the Cebuanos, Bol-anons, Siquijodnons, Illonggos, Hiligaynons and other Visayan ethnic groups.

In view of the above premises, the prompt approval of this measure is earnestly sought and recommended.
