13
14 EXPLANATORY NOTE

15
16 Realization of programs require a certain length of time before they are fully
17 implemented. The person in charge thus needs to hold the appropriate length
18 of service to adequately plan, test and execute his programs. This is the case
19 for crucial government position of the Chief of Staff of the Armed Forces of the 20 Philippines.

21
22 The tenure for the said position is limited by the Constitution to three years.
23 It is further shorted by the compulsory retirement age which requires AFP
24 personnel to retire at age 56.

25
26 It must be noted that a soldier still stands at the prime of his life at such age
27 and is still very much capable of rendering his expertise in the interest of the 28 nation. Furthermore, such situation also delimits the President's choices to 29 fill in vacancies in the Armed Forces with senior officers whose dates of 30 retirements are forthcoming.

31
32 With the position being critical to the country's national interest, public policy
33 requires that the person who should occupy the post must be in one's best 34 qualified capacity. A term of service must serve to allow the Chief of State to 35 take up leadership in the Armed Forces unhampered by imminent retirement
36 and change of officers. This Bills creates a venue for the implementation of 37 long-term and continuous programs of the AFP.

38
39 The approval of this Bill is earnestly sought.
