

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Metro Manila

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 5064

Introduced by Representative Sharon S. Garin

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Mr. Liang Xi Wu is a legal resident of the Republic of the Philippines. He has expressed his bona fide intention to acquire Philippine Citizenship by virtue of naturalization. He has stated his utmost desire to become a Filipino Citizen and has proven that he has nothing but the best of intentions in migrating to the country.

As a shareholder of several businesses in the country, he has greatly contributed to the economy of our country. He employs hundreds of Filipinos in his businesses and plans to employ more as soon as he acquires his Filipino Citizenship.

He is also an active member of several civic society organizations in the country. He has also contributed his time and resources to several Philippine charitable organizations including the Philippine Red Cross and different orphanages.

Mr. Liang Xi Wu merits consideration to have the privilege of becoming a naturalized Filipino as he has continually shown his love for this country and its people.

Hence, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
