Eighteenth Congress
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 2097

Introduced by Congressman JUMEL ANTHONY I. ESPINO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to declare the Limahong Channel in Domalandan, Lingayen, Province of Pangasinan as a tourist spot. It is proposed that the Department of Tourism shall give priority for the development of the area along Sitio Bantayan, Pangapisan North.

The Limahong Channel is a historic site because it was where the Chinese Pirate and Warlord, Limahong, who invaded the Northern Philippine Islands in 1574, sought refuge when he was repulsed by the Spaniards. Pursued by the Spanish colonizers, he dug a channel in Domalandan, Lingayen that served as his escape route towards the China Sea. It is located along the Agno River at the mouth of Lingayen Gulf.

With the approval of this bill, the historic Limahong Channel will become a tourism, historical, cultural, heritage, and eco-tourism site. The Department of Tourism will give priority development of the area such as the construction of the Limahong Channel Tourist Center that will serve as a museum to display some artifacts, souvenirs, historical items and other matters related to Limahong settlement the concreting Of the roads going to the Site.

The Limahong Channel will serve as a beautiful place for a river cruise on board a replica of Limahong's boat. The surrounding vicinity of the Agno River having been maintained as one of the best and cleanest river lines in the country can be showcased for its eco-tourism theme.

Declaring Limahong Channel as a tourist spot will entice tourists, local and foreign, especially the Chinese, to visit the place. This in a way will generate employment opportunities to the residents of the municipality and the nearby communities thus, improving their way of life.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
