AN ACT
INCREASING THE HONORARIUM AND CHRISTMAS BONUS OF BARANGAY OFFICIALS, INCLUDING BARANGAY TANODS, AND MEMBERS OF THE LUPON NG TAGAPAMAYAPA, AND GRANTING A LUMP SUM GRATUITY PAY EQUIVALENT TO ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND PESOS (P100,000.00) AND OTHER NON-MONETARY BENEFITS, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE SECTION 393 OF REPUBLIC ACT No. 7160, AS AMENDED, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT CODE OF 1991

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The barangay, as the basic political unit in the country, serves as the primary planning and implementing unit of government policies, plans, programs, projects and activities in the community and as forum wherein the collective views of the people may be expressed, crystallized and given due course.

Barangay officials are deemed persons in authority in their respective jurisdiction, and as such they are mandated to maintain public order and ensure the protection of life, liberty and property of each barangay resident.

Under the 1991 Local Government Code, barangays in the Philippines, headed by Punong Barangay (Barangay Chairmen), have defined powers in order to enhance their existence as an autonomous part of the municipality or city. They have executive, legislative and adjudicatory (LuponTagapamayapa) powers.

Barangay officials are the front liners of the government in the delivery of genuine basic services to the local folks. Punong Barangay (Barangay Chairmen) are the Chief Executives in the administration of barangay affairs. They preside over sessions of the Sangguniang Barangay and administer the operation of the KatarungangPambarangay. The LuponTagapamayapa members mediate disputes at the barangay level. Barangay Tanods (Barangay Police) enforce ordinances passed by the Sangguniang Barangay and diligently exert all lawful efforts in the maintenance Of peace and order in the barangay.

Barangays really have active participation in political and economic activities of our country. Henceforth, we cannot just take for granted the significant role of barangays in our society.

Given the above mentioned vital functions of the aforecited barangay officials in the community we live in, it is significantly noticeable that the meager amount of honoraria, allowances and emoluments they currently receive pursuant to Section 393 of the present Local Government Code are not compensatory to the valuable services they render. In order to justly and equitably give due recognition to the remarkable contributions of barangay officials in the true progress of the country, it is not only just but timely that we must substantially increase the benefits of the barangay officials which therefore requires the necessary amendment of Section 393 of the 1991 Local Government Code.

Considering the foregoing premises, this representation earnestly seeks for the immediate approval of this bill.
