HOUSE BILL NO. 1871

Introduced by: HON. JOSE ANTONIO R. SY ALVARADO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The exercise of the right of suffrage of our people is the highest point of our democracy it is through their sovereign voice that our government is made accountable to the people and our republican state republican its mandate.

Its is therefore of great importance that we maintain the integrity and fidelity of the electoral process to ensure that political will of the people will never be compromised by malevolent forces seeking to undermine the institution and process of our elected government.

This bill seeks to institutionalize a system of reporting between local civil registrars and Commission on Elections. Such measure is sought as a preventive measure against acts leading to election fraud. As elected officials ourselves, we all understand the value and essence of the sovereign will of the people. As duly elected members of Congress, we are duty bound to this expression of the people's grant to power. We lead not blinded by fraudulent manipulation of our through the short the short-circuiting of the electoral process.

Thus, the approval of this measure is very much advocated and sought.
