EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to enact a policy which institutionalizes the Conditional Cash Transfer Program in the country by establishing its basic parameters, procedures and mechanisms for its effective implementation.

In 2007, the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) pilot tested the Conditional Cash Transfer Program in various cities and municipalities with a budget of Fifty Million Pesos (P50,000,000.00) and in 2008, the said program was renamed Pantawid Pamilyang Pilipino Program (4Ps) by the DSWD through an Administrative Order which laid down the guidelines for its implementation.

The program seeks to break the inter-generational cycle of poverty by modifying household behaviors that families may invest in the education of their children and their overall welfare. It also seeks to address the short-term poverty through direct cash transfers, as well as long-term poverty by investing in the human capital among the poor households.

The creation of the 4Ps is heavily influenced by the success of the Conditional Cash Transfer (CCT) Programs in Latin American countries in the late 1990s. These countries have experienced poverty reduction through their CCT Programs, an example being the Bolsa Familia Program of Brazil, which exhibited improved outcomes in children's education, family nutrition and household wellness.

The program currently operates in all 17 regions in the Philippines, covering 79 provinces, 143 cities and 1,484 municipalities - with a total of 4,353,597 active household-beneficiaries.

The Contribution of the 4Ps to poverty reduction cannot go unnoticed. It has changed the lives of millions of Filipinos and many families are pinning their hopes for a better life in the said program.

In view of the foregoing, the approval of this bill is highly and earnestly recommended.
