EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 2524

INTRODUCED BY HONORABLE LIANDA B. BOLILIA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The bill seeks for a conversion of the Banay Banay I-Sto. Cristo, San Jose provincial road into a national road.

This 2.071 kilometer stretch of road is only asphalted. It is presently traversed by motorists from nearby municipalities. Currently, it is in good condition but without appropriate funding for maintenance, the road will slowly deteriorate and may come into state of disrepair.

The maintenance and improvement of the Banay Banay I-Sto. Cristo, San Jose Road is well within the capacity of the national government. The conversion of this road from provincial to national will undoubtedly serve to propel the economic development not only of the Municipality of San Jose but also the entire district.

Hence, the immediate enactment and approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
