EXPLANATORY NOTE

Republic Act No. 7160, otherwise known as “The Local Government Code of 1991,” as amended, was enacted precisely to breathe life into the constitutional mandate of local autonomy by establishing a more responsive and accountable local government structure instituted through an efficient system of decentralization. Essentially, this system is geared towards empowering local government units to achieve their full development as self-reliant communities, making them more effective and meaningful partners in the attainment of the nation’s goals.

Being the basic political unit, the barangays serve as “the primary planning and implementing unit of government policies, plans, programs, projects and activities in the community, and as a forum wherein the collective views of the people may be expressed, crystallized and considered” (Section 384 of the Local Government Code). As such, it is the country’s ultimate front-liner in the provision of a broad range of basic services to the community, as well as in the delivery to the citizenry of their first taste of the fruits of local public service.

In this sense, the creation of barangays, upon proper compliance with the requirements set by the Constitution and the Local Government Code, thus only serves to bolster the capability of local governments to efficiently and effectively perform their respective functions, duties and responsibilities in the name of autonomy, decentralization and national growth and prosperity.

Further, the policy of establishing, protecting and enhancing fiscal autonomy on all levels of local governance is integral to the proper exercise of local government functions. This policy refers not just to the power to allocate one’s resources in accordance with one’s priorities but also the power to create one’s own sources of revenue in addition to one’s equitable share in the national taxes released by the central government.

Section 6, Article X of the Constitution states: “Local government units shall have a just share, as determined by law, in the national taxes which shall be automatically released to them.” The Internal Revenue Allotment (IRA) as incorporated in the general appropriations law enacted annually by the legislature is the “just share” contemplated by the constitutional mandate. Therefore, it is clearly an indispensable component in the grant of meaningful and true fiscal autonomy to local government units. Further, Sec. 25 of RA 7160 bolsters the Constitutional grant of a just share of LGUs in the IRA.

Thus, this bill seeks to invoke the 1987 Constitution and RA 7160 by allowing Barangay Pinagsama to be entitled to a just share from the national taxes.

Barangay Pinagsama, located within the City of Taguig, Metro Manila, is one such barangay excluded from a share in the IRA. It has a land area of One Hundred Ninety-Two Thousand square meters (192,000 sq.m.), more or less, and a population of Thirty Eight Thousand One Hundred Eighty Eight (38,188). It is bounded on the North by the American Battle Monument; on the East, by Pres. Garcia Avenue (C-5) and Diego Silang (BCDA); on the South East, by Palakol Area (BCDA) and Barangay Signal Village; on the North and North West, by the American Battle Monument and M.R.T. Avenue (formerly Bayani Road); and on the South and South West by M.R.T. Avenue, Pres. Garcia Avenue, Proclamation No. 172 Western Bicutan and Veterans Center. Having thus complied with the requisites prescribed under Section 386 of the Local Government Code and the plebiscite requirement contained in Section 10, Article X of the Constitution, it was separated from the original Barangay Western Bicutan and created as a separate barangay by the City Government of Taguig, acting through the Sangguniang Panlungsod, under City Ordinance No. 67-2008 approved on September 15, 2008. Its corporate existence began on October 25, 2010 when its first set of regular officials was elected, pursuant to Section 14 of the Local Government Code.

In view of these considerations, and in the face of resonating and unified public clamor for a clear and immediate legislative remedy to the matter at hand, the immediate approval of this bill is highly and earnestly sought.
