AN ACT PROVIDING FOR A MAGNA CARTA FOR THE PHILIPPINE NATIONAL POLICE, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Art. II, Sec. 4 and 5 of the 1987 Philippine Constitution states that, "the prime duty of the Government is to serve and protect the people..." and that, "the maintenance of peace and order, the protection of life, liberty and property and promotion of the general welfare are essential for the enjoyment by all the people of the blessings of democracy." This duty is carried out by the the Philippine National Police (PNP). This proposed Magna Carta for the PNP Uniformed and Non-Uniformed Personnel codifies and strengthens existing rights and benefits provided for in various laws, resolutions and other circulars concerning PNP personnel.

This Magna Carta seeks to establish a separate salary scale for the PNP, distinct from the other agencies of the government, and provides for additional benefits such as cost of living, clothing, quarters and subsistence allowances, longevity pay, reasonable leaves and retirement programs to encourage qualified and competent individuals to join the police force.

PNP personnel assigned in remote or high risk areas are exposed to a different hazard unusual to peacekeeping, crime prevention and investigation activities will be compensated with remote assignment allowance and special hardship allowance, similar to combat pay of the Armed Forces of the Philippines. Immediate families and beneficiaries of members of the PNP who ceased while in the performance of their duties will be granted special financial scholarship and employment assistance.

This bill also aims to develop a holistic PNP development program which includes provisions on merit promotions, performance evaluation, in-service training, overseas and local scholarships, training grants, incentive award system, among others, to foster a highly efficient and competent police force.

This proposed Magna Carta seeks to give priority to the police force for their commitment to maintain peace and order and protect the lives of Filipino people.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
