PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REP. ABANTE

REP. ABANTE. Thank you, Majority Leader.

Mr. Speaker, my esteemed colleagues in the Eighteenth Congress, magandang, magandang gabi na po sa inyong lahat.

First, I would like to express my gratitude to the 28 Members of the dynamic Minority bloc of the Eighteenth Congress for trusting me to be their voice in this august Chamber. I humbly accepted this position with a commitment to do my best to perform the awesome responsibility called for to the best of my God-given abilities. Many have doubted, and perhaps continue to doubt, the ability of the Minority to be an independent voice of reason and balance. But this I say to all of you today: This Minority group will be truly independent, balanced, and constructive. We will stand for what is right, moral, just, and for the good of our country and our people.

Last Monday, our President delivered his State of the Nation Address. He outlined the direction to which he intends to bring our country and our people in the last half of his administration.

Allow us, distinguished colleagues, Mr. Speaker, in the Minority today to deliver our contra-SONA.

Lest we forget, we have declared in the Preamble of our Constitution that we, as the sovereign people, are imploring the aid of Almighty God, in order to build a just and humane society, and establish a government that shall promote the common good, and secure to ourselves and our posterity, the blessings of independence and democracy under the rule of law and a regime of truth, justice, freedom, love, equality, and peace.

Likewise, in Section 1, Article XI of our Constitution, we declared that public office is a public trust, to which I would like to add, a “sacred trust,” and that public officers and employees must, at all times, be accountable to the people, serve them with utmost responsibility, integrity, loyalty, and efficiency; act with patriotism and justice, and lead modest lives.

Despite these declarations, Mr. Speaker, we are yet to see a truly just society, a government that truly promotes and fights for the common good, a real respect to the rule of law, and a genuine regime of truth, justice and peace. Thus, the President, in his State of the Nation Address, expressed his frustration in battling illegal drugs and corruption in the government through the following statements: 1.) Corruption continues and emasculates the courage we need to sustain our moral recovery initiatives; 2.) We have not learned our lesson; 3.) The enemy is us; we are our own demons; 4.) We find corruption everywhere in government; 5.) For every transaction, a commission; for every action, extortion; and a request that goes on and on—endlessly and shamelessly; 6.) We are now entering a period of consequences; 7.) There are times when I think that perhaps it is blood that we need to cleanse and rinse away the dirt and the muck that stick to the flesh like leeches; and 8.) I will not stop until I reach the finish line, and I will end my term fighting.

We agree in all these, Mr. Speaker, and my esteemed colleagues. Corruption is a deep-seated problem and we support the President in his call to stop corruption and the proliferation of illegal drugs in whatever form and manner, but it must be a genuine fight, and a fight that recognizes and upholds the rule of law.

For one, we have seen the sickening fraud that was uncovered in the Philippine Health Insurance or PhilHealth—corruption. Criminal minds use the plight of our poor and the sick to enrich themselves, while many others are in need of medical services but cannot afford them. We in the Minority will be actively involved in looking deeper into this massive fraud. Let us make those who are truly responsible accountable. We have to craft legislative measures so that these kinds of activities will not happen again. Despite the drastic reforms initiated by the President, and in defiance to his instructions, some government-owned or -controlled corporations still shell out lavish salaries and bonuses to their officers while the ordinary Juan Dela Cruz continues to suffer from poverty and hunger, and from lack of medical care.

In view of these, I was expecting the President to mention the filing of the Freedom of Information Bill which is the weapon of the common people against corruption.

We, too, have seen the sufferings of our people by reason of the recent water shortage that disrupted, if not crippled, many homes and businesses that affected the lives of millions of our fellowmen and our economy. We are, therefore, with the President in ensuring that water continues to flow into our homes and business establishments.

We join the call of the President to our local executives to ensure the free flow of traffic by taking back public roads from private use. This can be done, as in the case of our new Mayor Francisco “Isko” Moreno Domagoso of the city of Manila. It is hoped that his lead will be followed by others.

As leader of the Minority, let me assure the nation that I will not compromise my belief and adherence to the rule of law, fully aware and always guided, especially being a Bishop, by the injunction in the Holy Writ that: “there is no power but of God, and the powers that be are ordained of God,” and that we, as elected public servants, should be “ministers or servants of God” for good—Romans 13:1 and 4.

We believe, therefore, that in the drastic steps and measures being taken by the President, though such may not be altogether acceptable to some, he has only our country and our people, especially the youth in his heart. I understand him when in expressing his frustration and exasperation, he said, “There are times when I think that perhaps it is blood that we need to cleanse and rinse away the dirt and the muck that stick to the flesh like leeches.” In this connection, I am reminded that it took the precious holy blood of Jesus Christ to be shed on Calvary’s cross to cleanse man’s sins and unrighteousness. The Holy Writ tells us: “In whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace”—Ephesians 1:7.

The President echoed his desire to see a progressive, peaceful, and prosperous Philippines to—allow me to add—a godly Philippines, for God has said, “Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord”—Psalms 33:12.

The President outlined several measures that he wants Congress to pass. Among these is the Trabaho Bill. Now, may I say this—according to the IBON Foundation survey, it says that the change in the official definition of unemployment, in 2005, drastically reduced the reported unemployment rate and the number of unemployed. Computing, according to the original definition of unemployment for comparability, would show that the real unemployment rate in 2018 is 10.1 percent and the real number of unemployed is 4.6 million. In contrast, officially released figures for 2018 were a grossly underreported 5.3 percent and 2.3 million, respectively. If these statistics were true, we, indeed, in this House, need to tackle with all seriousness and expeditiously the Trabaho Bill taking into consideration: 1.) the plight of retiring OFWs by reason of age, disability and other reasons that when they come back to the Philippines they cannot find work anymore; 2.) The condition of disenfranchised and disadvantaged labor force; 3.) The protection of small businesses that cannot compete with big businesses; 4.) The condition of the PWDs and senior citizens who are still capable to work; and 5.) The increase of the minimum wage law.

The Tax Bill, as I continue on, the increase of salary of teachers and nurses which is long overdue, thus, amending the Salary Standardization Law; the use of the Coconut Levy Fund; and the National Defense Bill are among the measures the President wants to pass. We in the Minority commit to study these measures and we assure you that we shall be objective in our criticism and scrutiny, as the case may be, and we shall be supportive if it will serve the good of our country and our people, giving utmost importance to what is good to our people, especially the poor, the victims of injustice, the victims of illegal drugs and the marginalized. We shall be fearless in defending measures aimed at ridding the government of graft and corrupt practices, illegal drugs and all forms of criminal activities. But we shall equally be relentless and never to compromise in fighting against measures that are not right, moral, just and that will not be good to our people and our country.

We agree with the President when he said that we have not learned our lesson and that we are entering a period of consequences. Remember the biblical injunction in the book of Galatians 6:7 where it says, “God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.”

We may not agree on everything, but whatever action we make and whatever we take, we must never forget that, one day, we shall give an account of ourselves before a Holy God. People who are criminals and corrupt might escape justice and the law, but they will never escape the justice of God.

As we have been given by God the opportunity, privilege and power to serve, let us use the powers in our hands for the good of our country and our people. Let us not withhold what is good from them. As the Holy Writ tells us, “Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it”—Proverbs 3:27. And we should do it today.

Lastly, Mr. Speaker, and esteemed colleagues, being a Bishop, I cannot help but comment on the side statement of the President on his belief in the universal God, and taking a swipe on the God of the Bible, he said in effect, “What kind of God is He who will create hell for man’s damnation.” I admit that it is also hard for me to comprehend being human and finite, but he, our President, has all the right to express his sentiments to us, being a democratic country. Our Bill of Rights, which was copied from the United States, gave him that right. May I say, also to inform you all, that the US Bill of Rights was penned by people most of whom were Evangelical and Baptist Christians where I belong. The freedom of expression and freedom of religion are our sacred rights.

Patrick Henry said, “Give me liberty or give me death.” Freedom is a treasure that should never be taken away from us. On the basis of these rights, Mr. Speaker, may I say candidly that the God of the Bible, being absolutely holy and sovereign, has that absolute prerogative.

Along this line, in a democratic nation such as ours, sovereignty resides in the people—vox populi, vox dei. Our President was elected by the sovereign Filipino people, thereby, making him a little human sovereign with vast powers, just like God who, being angry with the wicked every day—You are going to squirm and even feel nervous about what I am going to quote to you, a verse in the book of Revelation that says, in Revelation 21:8, and I quote God speaking here: “But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars”—that might include us—“shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.” That is the word of God, Mr. Speaker.

Our President, like God being a human sovereign, must also be angry with the wicked. He must also be angry with the criminals. He must also be angry with the drug lords. He must also be angry with the corrupt officials in the government, who despise the rule of law. That is why the President wants the reimposition of the death penalty.

Mr. Speaker, my esteemed colleagues, I respect the President’s expression of freedom, as I should also be respected to express my view on who God really is. But you know what? God is not only a righteous God, God is not only a just God, but he is also a loving God. While he said that the wages of sin is death, he said the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

One of the most popular verse in the Bible is John 3:16 where it says:

For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have everlasting life.

I remember the then President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo when she absolutely pardoned the former President Erap Estrada, not out of politics, but out of compassion, Mr. Speaker. I believe that our President who is in a way a human sovereign will not only exercise his right of justice, but also exercise his compassion as President of the Filipino people.

Dearly beloved today, I want to thank you for being able to listen to this contra-SONA and a little bit of a spiritual homily. Thank you. God bless the Eighteenth Congress. God bless our country. God bless us all. Mabuhay ang mamamayang Pilipino. (Applause)

RESUMPTION OF SESSION

At 6:25 p.m., the session was resumed.

THE DEPUTY SPEAKER (Rep. Hernandez). The session is resumed.

The Majority Leader is recognized.

REP. REMULLA. Mr. Speaker, after conferring with the Hon. Joel Mayo Z. Almario, he has acceded to the request of the Hon. Edcel C. Lagman to suspend for the meantime his interpellation and to give way to the speech of the Hon. Edcel C. Lagman. So, may we recognize the Hon. Edcel C. Lagman for his speech under this Privilege Hour.

THE DEPUTY SPEAKER (Rep. Hernandez). The Hon. Edcel C. Lagman of the First District of Albay is hereby recognized.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REP. LAGMAN

REP. LAGMAN. Honorable Speaker, distinguished colleagues.

First, I would like to thank the Honorable Almario for giving me the chance to deliver this contra-SONA first before he makes his interpellation.

I would also like to state that yesterday, I was prepared to deliver this contra-SONA to comply with the tradition that it should be delivered the next day immediately following the President's SONA, but for some reasons, this speech has been delayed for today. I state that for the record.

Mr. Speaker, honorable colleagues, delivering the contra-SONA of the authentic opposition is not only fulfilling a continuing tradition, it is also an enduring commitment to articulate differing views and assessments of the true state of the nation, devoid of pomp, propaganda, theatrics and hyperbole. It is demystifying the aura of presidential pronouncements. It is an incisive reaction to what the President said and failed to say in his SONA. It is making democracy work by giving the public an alternative perspective and genuine choice. It is telling our people the truth even if it hurts. Like in the collaborative speech of the Honorable Abante, let me start by agreeing with the following laudable commitments and recommendations made by the President:

1. He said, and I quote, "This is now time for Congress to approve a new version of the Salary Standardization Law. xxx This is intended to increase the salaries of national government workers, including teachers and nurses." Let me underscore "teachers and nurses."

2. The President scored the scandal in the PhilHealth where, and I quote, "huge amounts of medical funds were released to cover padded medical claims and imaginary treatment of ghost patients. xxx The government is conned of millions of pesos which could be used to treat illnesses and possibly save the lives of many." He has ordered the arrest, prosecution and conviction, once warranted, of those liable.

3. The President also called on the Congress to pass a law mandating a Fire Protection Modernization Program. This will save the government billions of pesos worth of properties gutted by fire, not to mention loss of lives.

4. The President urged the Land Bank of the Philippines under the pain of abolition to comply with its mandate to serve as the farmers' bank rather than financing big businesses. This will vastly improve the credit facilities for farmers and accelerate agricultural development; and

5. The President has directed DILG Secretary Eduardo Año, to require all mayors to issue at most within three days all clearances and permits required to be approved by their respective offices. This will tremendously ease the conduct of business at the local level.

Now, let me go to the President's candid admissions of failure. The President has candidly admitted the failure to successfully address the following major problems as he embarks on the second half of his Presidency, and I quote:

1. "The illegal drug problem persists," according to the President. Indeed, the drug menace terrifyingly stalks our land.

2. Corruption continues to be pervasive. He aptly said that "corruption exasperates and frustrates." He added that "for every transaction, a commission; for every action, extortion xxx."

3. The traffic gridlock has not been solved and even escalates. The President said: "one estimate pegs economic losses at P3.5 billion a day due to traffic congestion in Metro Manila."

Mr. Speaker, distinguished colleagues, speedy solutions to the drug, corruption, and traffic problems were promised by the President during his campaign and he renewed them when he assumed the Presidency. The promised solutions are nowhere to be found, are nowhere in sight.

Now, let me go to the core of this contra-SONA, the President failed to mention the current state of justice system. The pervasive injustice afflicting the Duterte administration was again highlighted by the recent baseless and malevolent charges for sedition, inciting to sedition, cyber libel and other crimes against Vice President Leni Robredo, critical bishops, and vocal opposition leaders in relation to Bikoy's "Ang Totoong Narco List" videos.

When these videos first appeared implicating President Duterte to the illicit drug trade, some members of his family and close allies said that diehard Duterte apologists called Bikoy or Peter Joemel Advincula was a purveyor of black propaganda and lies, who has no credibility. After Bikoy recanted and claimed that the production of the videos was induced and bankrolled by the political opposition and critics of the administration, the same Duterte defenders instantly sainted Bikoy with credibility and probity.

Although Malacañang disclaimed knowledge of the complaint filed by the CIDG-NCR, this disclaimer is not believable considering that nothing as serious as the charges against the personalities involved would escape the prior knowledge and possible imprimatur of the President.

More than the presence or absence of complicity or culpability of the respondents, what is overriding is to determine the authenticity or lack of veracity of the documents presented in the videos. It is for this reason that instead of forming a panel of prosecutors accountable to the Secretary of Justice who is the alter ego of the President, an independent Commission composed of former justices who retired before the start of the tenure of President Duterte should be constituted to impartially investigate the allegations.

Less than one year after the start of the Duterte administration, a signal of injustice was perpetrated with the summary incarceration of Senator Leila De Lima on February 24, 2017 or two years, four months and 31 days ago today. The only sin of Senator De Lima is her courage to talk back against the President and criticize the ferocity of his war on drugs. The trumped-up drug charges against De Lima were lamely supported by the affidavits of felons serving long sentences in the New Bilibid Prison who continue to conduct their drug trade behind bars with the complicity of prison officials. US Senators, Congressmen and the United Nations Working Group on Arbitrary Detention have called for her immediate release as a "prisoner of conscience."

Two legislative proposals of the administration will plague the justice system: the restoration of the death penalty and the reduction of the age of criminal responsibility. Empirical studies show that both initiatives will not, will not, deter the commission of crimes. The right to life is supreme among all human rights. The death penalty has become a penal aberration. No child of tender age must be considered a criminal or be treated as one. The Juvenile Justice and Welfare Act must be fully implemented and adequately funded, instead of making the children felons.

The 22 Filipino fishermen whose fishing boat, anchored at the Philippines' Recto Bank in the West Philippine Sea (WPS) was rammed unprovoked and submerged by a Chinese militia vessel, and were abandoned to die at sea, cry for justice from the Duterte administration. Fortunately, they were rescued by Vietnamese fishermen. In the first place, Mr. Speaker, why was a Chinese militia vessel purportedly built to ram fishing boats navigating around Philippine waters? Instead of defending Filipinos who were left to die, the President, even without a formal investigation, trivialized the incident by declaring it a "little maritime accident" or a "marine incident" as he stated in his SONA.

The 22 fishermen are now at the receiving end of the country's flawed policy of undue deference to China, as the Duterte administration has consented, at the behest of China, to allow the culprits' nation to jointly or separately investigate the tragic incident.

Honorable colleagues, where in the world is a culprit allowed to investigate his own crime and resolve his own guilt?

Similarly, the President failed to defend the administration's dismal human rights record. Even when he was the Mayor of Davao City, President Duterte demeaned human rights to no small measure. He continued this aversion when he assumed the Presidency.

He refuses to comprehend the universality of human rights as he maintains that criminals do not have human rights. Because he denies suspected drug users and dealers of their human rights to due process and the rule of law, his brutal war on drugs has intensified the extrajudicial killings.

It is of no moment that the total number of EJK victims varies between the government tally and the count of civil society and human rights groups. The fact is, thousands upon thousands of victims, particularly from the poor and marginalized sectors, have been summarily killed. President Duterte even threatened to escalate this number to approximate the six million victims of the Holocaust.

The promotion and protection of human rights is a global concern which transcends sovereign territories. It is in this context that the Iceland-sponsored resolution of the United Nations Human Rights Council, UNHRC, of which the Philippines is a member, must be appreciated.

The straightforward resolution merely calls upon the Philippines to cooperate with the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights by facilitating country visits and preventing and refraining from all acts of intimidation or retaliation, and request the High Commissioner to prepare a comprehensive written report on the situation of human rights in the Philippines.

The rejection by the Duterte administration of the projected investigation is based purely on self-serving reasons masqueraded as "upholding Philippine sovereignty." In denouncing the resolution, President Duterte went to the extent of insulting Icelanders as ice-eaters, which was completely uncalled for and off-tangent, even as it is farcical. Incidentally, Iceland ranks sixth in the latest UN Human Development Index compared to the Philippines' 133rd.

In his ballistic reaction to the adoption of the Iceland-initiated resolution, Foreign Affairs Secretary Locsin Jr. falsely claimed that the Philippines has, and I quote, "an unblemished human rights record." This, Mr. Speaker, honorable colleagues, is an unmitigated perfidy. A trail of blood has left thousands of poor families grieving and crying for justice, due process and the rule of law.

If according to the Duterte administration its war on drugs is legal and the killings are due to legitimate encounters, then the country has nothing to hide and nothing to fear in the conduct of the UNHRC investigation.

The human rights record of the Duterte administration is further stained by its unabated harassment and even liquidation of human rights defenders. It is to the credit of this House that during the Seventeenth Congress, House Bill No. 9199 or the Human Rights Defenders Act was unanimously passed on Third and final Reading. The Senate failed to act on the measure because of lack of time. I have refiled this bill as House Bill No. 15 in the Eighteenth Congress to underscore the urgency of protecting human rights defenders.

On July 12, 2016, the UN Permanent Court of Arbitration rendered an unequivocal verdict holding the Philippines' exclusive sovereign rights and ownership of the West Philippine Sea and rejecting China's nine-dash line and spurious claims over the resource-rich area.

Three years after the arbitral award, the Duterte administration has failed and refuses to take the necessary action to enforce the award or even discuss the arbitral award with China.

On the contrary, it has virtually ceded Philippine sovereignty over the WPS to China by acquiescing to China's expansions, aggression, in the West Philippine Sea, with the installation of Chinese military facilities and missile buildup, including the arrogation of our marine resources. This unpatriotic surrender of our sovereignty violates the Constitution and the President's solemn oath of office.

It should be underscored that according to the most recent survey of the SWS, 93 percent of respondents believe it is important for the country to regain control of islands in the West Philippine Sea occupied by China. Correlatively, the Filipinos' trust in China plummeted to a dismal low of -24 percent according to the SWS survey.

Although President Duterte admits that there is no ifs or buts, the West Philippine Sea is ours. He is unduly delaying to assert the country's arbitral victory to the point of forfeiture. While errantly asserting Philippine sovereignty against the UNHRC resolution, the Duterte administration subserviently surrenders Philippine sovereignty to China in the West Philippine Sea.

Now, let me go to the economy. The President merely glossed over the economic scenario. Let me be more detailed. The overall Philippine economic performance under the Duterte administration has been by no means spectacular, as measured by the gross domestic product growth rate.

The Duterte administration's maiden quarter registered a high 7.1 percent. It is inaccurate however to attribute the performance solely to the new administration. It takes time to formulate appropriate economic policies, implement them and have their effects fully felt by the economy.

The previous administration, in fact, set the tone by registering admirable growth rates of 6.8 percent and 7 percent in the first and second quarters of 2016, respectively. A good part of this strong start by the Duterte administration might simply have been impelled by the former administration's efforts.

It is worrisome that the strong initial performance was not sustained in subsequent quarters. From a high of 6.6 percent growth rate in the last quarter of 2017, the economy went down to 6.5 percent in the first quarter of 2018, to 6.2 percent in the second quarter, and to six percent in the third quarter. The slide was briefly arrested in the fourth quarter, which showed a 6.3 percent growth, but the economy relapsed to 5.6 percent in the first quarter of 2019.

The Philippine inflation story parallels the GDP story, initially encouraging but eventually discouraging. The inflation rate in July 2016 was 1.3 percent. It steadily rose to 2.2 percent in December of that year or an average monthly rate of 1.7 percent. Inflation continued to creep in 2017, averaging 2.9 percent for the year. The creep turned to gallop as inflation—chiefly because of oil prices, the TRAIN Law and the administrative skirmishes in the NFA—soared in 2018, averaging 5.2 percent for the year and reaching 6.7 percent in September and October. The four-percent upper limit target of the Bangko Sentral was clearly breached. Inflation in 2019 gradually eased from 4.4 percent in January to only 2.7 percent in June, but the purchasing power of the peso has not strengthened and the prices of prime commodities remained high.

The Arroyo administration created jobs at an annual average of 869,000. The Aquino administration did even better, annually averaging 937,000. The Duterte administration has not been as assiduous, averaging only 662,000.

Poverty alleviation is a major objective of a developing country. The administration proudly announced the reduction in poverty incidence from 27.6 percent in 2015 to only 21 percent in 2018. There are, however, concerns about the measurement of poverty. The most common is that the P10,481 poverty threshold is, for a family of five, too low. How can this be enough for food, shelter, utilities, medicine, clothing, transportation, and other necessities?

Clearly, the threshold should be higher, but this means that more Filipinos will be considered poor, much higher than 21 percent. The present low poverty threshold, however, liberated millions of Filipinos from poverty through statistical perfidy. It may be simpler to us Filipinos if they consider themselves poor. The June 2019 SWS survey on self-rated poverty shows that 45 percent of families, or roughly 11.1 million, consider themselves poor. Assuming that the average family has five members, this translates to 55.5 million individuals, or even more than 50 percent of the population, who rated themselves poor. This is an increase of 7 percent, or almost 2 million families, from those who rated themselves poor in the first quarter of the year.

The survey also shows that the number of Filipinos who consider their families as food-poor, or poor based on the food they eat, increased from 27 percent to a high of 35 percent—equivalent to an increase from 6.8 million to 8.5 million families. Interestingly, the respondents assessed P15,000, not P10,481, a month is the real poverty threshold.

Mr. Speaker, honorable colleagues, in the last 3 years of his tenure, the President aims to make “life comfortable for all Filipinos.” We join him in this aspiration but before this could be achieved, there must be serious reforms in the justice system: extrajudicial killings ended, human rights promoted and protected, due process and the rule of law zealously observed, genuine sovereignty upheld and preserved, and the economy made robust for all, especially for the disadvantaged and marginalized.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you, distinguished colleagues. (Applause)

REP. BONDOC. Mr. Speaker, I move that we recognize the Hon. Antonio “Tonypet” T. Albano for his manifestation.

THE DEPUTY SPEAKER (Rep. Hernandez). The Gentleman is recognized.

REP. ALBANO (A.). Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, in spite of the contra-SONA of our Representative of the Sixth District of Manila, Congressman and now Minority Leader Benny Abante, this Representation of the First District of Isabela would like to commend and congratulate him as he will be a very good fiscalizer and a very good independent-minded opposition. His morality and good character are impeccable. I trust that the Minority leadership will be in good hands that will steer our House as our angel’s advocate and not a devil’s advocate, like the other opposition leaders of the past.

And so, this humble Representation actually congratulates the Minority in knowing that within the halls of this Eighteenth Congress we will have a good Minority that will fiscalize all the dealings of the Majority, and that our Eighteenth Congress will be very successful in the good hands of our Speaker Alan Cayetano and the Minority.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. (Applause)

THE DEPUTY SPEAKER (Rep. Hernandez). The Majority Leader is recognized.

REP. ABANTE. Mr. Speaker.

REP. BONDOC. Mr. Speaker, at this juncture, I move that we recognize our honorable Minority Leader, the Hon. Benny Abante from the Sixth District of Metro Manila, for the interpellation to be delivered by the Hon. Joel Mayo Z. Almario.

THE DEPUTY SPEAKER (Rep. Hernandez). Hon. Bienvenido “Benny” M. Abante Jr., is hereby recognized.

REP. ABANTE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

REP. BONDOC. Mr. Speaker, I move that we recognize the Hon. Joel Mayo Z. Almario for his chance to interpellate the honorable Minority Leader.

REP. ABANTE. But first of all Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank the...

THE DEPUTY SPEAKER (Rep. Hernandez). Honorable, Honorable...

REP. ABANTE. ...the Gentleman from...

THE DEPUTY SPEAKER (Rep. Hernandez). ...Almario.

REP. ABANTE. ...from Isabela for a very encouraging and wonderful comment. Thank you.

THE DEPUTY SPEAKER (Rep. Hernandez). Hon. Mayo Almario of the Second District of Davao Oriental is hereby recognized.

REP. ALMARIO. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will the Minority Leader yield to some questions from this Representation?

REP. ABANTE. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

REP. ALMARIO. Mr. Speaker, earlier,...

REP. ABANTE. ... from a good friend.

REP. ALMARIO. ...earlier, I was listening to the Minority Leader, a colleague in the Thirteenth Congress and I felt like I was already attending the Wednesday Mass, Mr. Speaker, but nonetheless, I appreciate his speech and all the biblical sayings.

I would like to start my interpellation by asking him if he knows what is written in Romans 12:21, Mr. Speaker.

REP. ABANTE. Romans ...

REP. ALMARIO. 12:21.

REP. ABANTE. 12:21. Well, Mr. Speaker, it says in Romans 12:21, "Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good."

REP. ALMARIO. That is a correct reading, Mr. Speaker, and I would like to share with everybody here that in Cebuano, my dialect, Romans 12:21 or Roma dose veinte uno (12:21), simply states, "Dauga ang dautan pinaagi sa maayo." (Laughter)

Now, Mr. Speaker, I was listening intently and I observed that the Minority Leader, the Honorable Abante, seemed to agree with the President in his SONA or State of the Nation Address. In fact, I took down some notes and, for five times, he manifested his agreement, and I quote the first one after stating the frustrations of the President, the Minority Leader said, and I quote:

We agree in this; corruption is a deep-seated problem and we support the President in his call to stop corruption and the proliferation of illegal drugs in whatever form and manner, but it must be a genuine fight, a fight that recognizes and upholds the rule of law.

The second time he manifested his agreement with the President, Mr. Speaker, I will quote the Minority Leader, he said:

We too, have seen the sufferings of our people by reason of the recent water shortage that disrupted, if not crippled many homes and businesses that affected the lives of millions of our fellowmen and our economy. We are with the President therefore in ensuring that water continues to flow, and so on and so forth.

Next, Mr. Speaker, the Minority Leader manifested his agreement with the President by saying, and I quote:

We join the call of the President to our local executives to ensure the free-flow of government services, and yet again, Mr. Speaker, the Minority Leader manifested in another part of his speech and I quote:

We believe that in the drastic steps and measures being taken by the President, though such may not be altogether acceptable to some, he has only our country and our people, especially the youth in his heart.

These, Mr. Speaker, I would want to emphasize that the Minority Leader is with the President in his effort to reform our country and in his desire to make an impact on the lives of the people.

Do I get a positive—do I have, Mr. Speaker, with the Minority Leader, the meeting of our minds that in fact, he agrees with the President?

REP. ABANTE. Well, Mr. Speaker, I would like to state that when the President was delivering his SONA, there were several times that I applauded the speech. It means, if I applauded, that I am agreeable with most of what he said. Only, Mr. Speaker, as I have promised the Minority bloc, and as I have promised this august Chamber, that the Minority will be objective, critical, and collaborative with the administration.

REP. ALMARIO. That is in fact, Mr. Speaker, what everybody wants, that there is a fiscalizer who will be objective in the efforts of this administration, and even the death penalty which was mentioned earlier, because the President also mentioned it in his SONA. It is up to Congress; it is up to the 304 or 306 Representatives including the Party-List Representatives to discuss this matter in our respective halls of Congress, the House of Representatives and the Senate, and all the President has to do when it will be before him for his signature is to affix his signature manifesting his approval or not. Mr. Speaker, the kind of thinking that the Minority Leader has stated, that they will be objective, is exactly what we need so that we can craft laws that will benefit the people of this Republic, Mr. Speaker.

I have emphasized, Mr. Speaker, when we were talking with the Minority bloc, that we would be constructive rather than destructive because we believe that many of the objectives of the President is good for the country, so why should we oppose him for the sake of opposing? The Minority bloc of the Eighteenth Congress, Mr. Speaker, will not resort to opposing only for the sake of opposing. The Minority bloc of the Eighteenth Congress will be objective and balanced in scrutinizing every legislation and bill that we will tackle on the floor. Thank you for that, Mr. Speaker, Mr. Minority Leader. With that kind of mindset, we can complete the picture drawn by the Majority bloc consisting of about...

REP. ABANTE. Twenty-eight.

REP. ALMARIO. ... 278 Congressmen and by the Minority bloc consisting of 28 Congressmen that will redound to the benefit of our people. I have known the President, Mr. Speaker, since he was Mayor of Davao City and I can tell from the first day he set foot as Mayor that Davao City has changed and developed a hundred fold. Yet we still cannot say that it is a perfect place, but we can say that the President when he was Mayor did his best. As we can see now in the national scene, Mr. Speaker, the country that the President inherited is not a bed of roses, but survey showed that although it is not yet perfect and there could never be a perfect society, the President's effort to change the image of the country and to improve the lives of the people, are being felt by the people. This is precisely why when he started his SONA, he said that only three percent disapproved his performance.

So, again, Mr. Speaker, I need not say more. I can only thank the Minority Leader for being in the Minority with the kind of mindset that he expressed earlier. We need him and the Minority bloc to complete the picture of everything that we do here so that we can come up with legislations that would genuinely and positively affect the lives of our people.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

THE DEPUTY SPEAKER (Rep. Hernandez). Thank you.

REP. ALMARIO. Mr. Minority Leader, I would like to thank you for your time. Thank you very much.

REP. ABANTE. Thank you.

THE DEPUTY SPEAKER (Rep. Hernandez). The Majority Leader is recognized.

I move that we consolidate similar resolutions, namely: House Resolutions No. 75, 76, 77, 82, 84, 85, 87, 90, 98, 100, 103 and 104, with the adopted House Resolution No. 102.
