EXPLANATORY NOTE

It seems supremely ironic that as of this date, the two greatest Filipinos who ever lived were, technically and legally speaking, not our national heroes. Whether due to deliberate government inaction or due to plain bureaucratic negligence, the fact remains that at present, there is yet no statute or executive issuance proclaiming Dr. Jose Rizal and Gat Andres Bonifacio, or any Filipino historical figure for that matter, as national heroes of this country. The instant bill seeks to correct this legal oversight by pushing for the official declaration of Rizal and Bonifacio as national heroes of the Republic of the Philippines.

The contributions of both Jose Rizal and Andres Bonifacio to the social transformations that eventually resulted in our country gaining the freedom it has been dreaming, striving and fighting for, are universally recognized. In fact, several laws were passed, the earliest of which was in 1898, honoring and commemorating their lives and contributions, such as:

- a) Decree of December 20, 1898 which declared December 30 of every year a day of national mourning in honor of Rizal and other victims of the Philippine Revolution;
- b) Act No. 137 which organized the politico-military district of Morong into the Province of Jose Rizal to honor Rizal;
- c) Act No. 2946 enacted in 1921 to commemorate the birth of Andres Bonifacio; and
- d) Act No. 2760 enacted in 1918 which confirmed and ratified all steps taken for the creation, maintenance, improvement of national monuments and particularly for the erection of a national monument in memory of Andres Bonifacio.

The aforecited enactments impliedly granted Jose Rizal and Andres Bonifacio the status of our national heroes; hence, it is only proper and logical for the present Congress to promulgate a law officially bestowing such status upon the two beloved fathers of our nation. This is the least we could do to repay them, as well as their families and heirs, for the ultimate sacrifice that they both performed so that the Filipino nation can be free. This will also guarantee that the cost of the freedom currently being enjoyed by the Filipino people, and which will continue to be enjoyed by the future generations, shall forever be instilled in our minds and hearts.

In view of the foregoing premises, support for the immediate passage of this bill is being earnestly solicited.
