

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS)
REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES)
First Regular Session)

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Introduced by Representative Rufus B. Rodriguez

House Bill No. 1854

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The number of financial institutions offering international money transfer services has recently doubled in view of intensified international business transactions of late and increased remittances sent by Filipinos working abroad.

Given these developments, however, many financial institutions take advantage of their clients by not disclosing certain crucial information to consumers before the transaction consummation; hence, denying certain benefits which should accrue them.

There is a need to set in place appropriate disclosure mechanism. Any financial institution or money transmitting business which initiates an international money transfer on behalf of a consumer (whether or not the consumer maintains an account at such institution or business) should therefore be required to make a good faith effort to provide the following disclosures to the consumer before the consummation of the transaction:

- (a) any fees to be charged to the recipient, including exchange rate or currency conversion fees;
- (b) a final itemization of all costs to the consumer, which would include all fees charged, for the remittance; and
- (c) the exact amount of foreign currency to be received by the recipient in the foreign country.

This proposed measure seeks to institutionalize disclosure practice in the international money transfer to facilitate transparent and cost-effective transaction.

Immediate approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
