EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to declare June 29 of every year as a special non-working holiday in the Municipality of Polangui, Province of Albay.

Since it will be a special non-working holiday, the entire population in Polangui will be able to participate in various activities of the day such as contests, trade exhibits, games, and others, without those employed having to worry about loss of income during that day.

The people of Polangui, Albay had always considered June 29 of every year as a very special date because it is both the town fiesta in honor of its Holy Patron. Sts. Peter and Paul and the founding anniversary of the Municipality.

It had been a tradition during that date to showcase Polangui's culture, points of interest, and investment opportunities for both local and foreign entities.

In view thereof, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
