EXPLANATORY NOTE

Opportunities to enjoy government programs or policies should be accorded to all equally, without discrimination. Thus, senior high school students should be given opportunity to take government first level examinations or sub-professional civil service examinations not only to determine their fitness through a competitive examinations, but an opportunity to be eligible to government service.

This bill seeks to give opportunity to senior high school students to secure a government civil service eligibility affording them a chance and wide option either to pursue further studies or work in the government or both.
