HOUSE BILL NO. 3714

Introduced by HON. JOY MYRA S. TAMBUNTING

EXPLANATORY NOTE

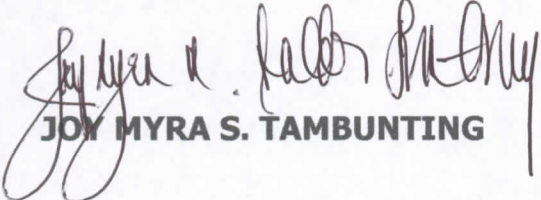

This legislation aims to strengthen the fundamental right of the working class to equitable share in the fruits of production. Under this bill, the duration of a Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) is shortened to three (3) years to assure workers of maximum opportunity to choose the rightful bargaining representative and to negotiate for the most beneficial terms and conditions of work in a given establishment at a fixed limited period of time.

This bill seeks to shorten the effectivity of CBA from five (5) years as mandated by Republic Act 6715 to three (3) years. Through this, the workers are empowered to propose at the most opportune time and bargain timely and necessary changes in their employment conditions giving more flexibility and productivity.

This measure proposes a rational approach in consideration of workers welfare and productivity at workplace. To bind the workers' representation and oblige workers to put up with what has been agreed five years ago is the same as conditioning workers to be contented with poor terms and conditions of work.

Besides considerations of productivity, the law protecting workers' right has maintained the principle of primacy of collective bargaining as an effective tool in preserving economic rights of the workers.

It is in this light that immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
