HOUSE BILL NO. 3974

Introduced by HON. LUIS RAYMUND "LRAY" F. VILLAFUERTE, JR.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Tourist arrivals in Camarines Sur grew 25 fold, from 58,000 in 2005 to 2.5 million in 2010 and in 2012¹ when the province rose to become the top tourist destination of the country during those years. This rise has continued until present due largely to the growing recognition of Camarines Sur as a major sports and adventure tourism destination—with the Camarines Sur Watersports Complex (CWC) at the helm of this growth and cognizance. Dubbed as the “best wakeboard park in the world”, the six-hectare complex is the first world-class watersports complex in the Philippines and in Asia.

The CWC has been credited as the main pull for tourists to the province and the main reason for it topping the Department of Tourism’s tourist arrivals list year after year, citing 3 million arrivals in 2013². It is situated within the Provincial Capitol Complex in Pili, Camarines Sur, the first and only Local Government Unit-operated Tourism Economic Zone pursuant to Republic Act No. 7916. The National Economic and Development Authority once cited the tourism record of CWC as a “breakthrough in Bicol tourism industry” while the regional office of the DOT has constantly recognized its importance to the tourism industry in the region.

CWC in Camarines Sur pioneered several world-renowned championship events and tournaments in Wakeboarding, being the first to host the annual WWA Wake Park World Championships in 2008 (which it also hosted in 2009, 2010, 2016 and 2017), the Asian Wakepark Championship in 2008 and 2009, the Reef Asian Wakefest in 2010, the King of Wake – Asian Wakepark tour of WWA in 2012 and 2013, as well as the Philippine Wakeboard Nationals, which it hosted every year from 2006 to present.

The complex has attracted water sports enthusiasts from all over the world and has consistently been a favorite by both foreign and local travelers until today. In 2016, CWC signed on for a three-year agreement to host the world championships—having hosted the event since the beginning and is a destination sought out by riders around the world. Attendees of the event often stay longer than needed thanks to CWC's affordability and world class amenities.

Wakeboarding as a sport was created from a combination of water skiing, snowboarding and surfing techniques. It has sustained an increasing popularity across countries, with wakeboarding parks popping up in popular tourist destinations worldwide such as in the UK, Australia, and the US. It has become one of the world's fastest growing sports and is gradually being recognized globally. Locally, the Camarines Sur Watersports Complex has become a top destination for tourists during summer vacation³.

This bill intends to ride the growth of wakeboarding and watersports in the country, especially in Camarines Sur, and help promote tourism in the province by declaring Camarines Sur as the Wakeboarding Capital of the Philippines.

The approval of this bill is earnestly sought.

LUIS RAYMUND "LRAY" F. VILLAFUERTE, JR.
