AN ACT

CREATING THE PHILIPPINE MEDICAL ACADEMY, ESTABLISHING THE PHILIPPINE MEDICAL SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM AND APPROPRIATING FUNDS THEREFOR

Explanatory Note

Section 12, Article XII (Social Justice and Human Rights) of the Constitution provides that: The State shall establish and maintain an effective food and drug regulatory system and undertake appropriate health manpower development and research, responsive to the country's health needs and problems.

Various health advocate organizations claim that hospitals in rural areas in Visayas and Mindanao face a crisis and even imminent closure because of the lack of doctors. Even prestigious medical institutions find it difficult to attract fresh graduates to fill up slots for doctors. The government has acknowledged the reality that, indeed, the country is facing an alarming shortage of medical doctors and other medical professionals.

The cost of medical studies has become so prohibitive that it has become beyond the reach of Filipino families even those belonging to the upper middle class. In the past few years, the situation has been aggravated by doctors taking up nursing and leaving the country for more lucrative jobs abroad.

Since medical doctors constitute the core of a country's public health service system, the shortage of doctors severely prejudices the capacity of the government to deliver timely, adequate, competent and affordable medical and health care services to our people. This affects especially the poor who need such services but can hardly afford them.

Thus, there is an urgent need to create a steadily expanding pool of medical doctors to strengthen the core of our public health service system. This should be done through institutional mechanisms and programs that will enable a greater number of qualified and public-service oriented young people to pursue medical education, while at the same time, effectively integrating them into the public health service system. In such manner, their talents would be harnessed within an optimum time for the benefit of our country and people.

This bill seeks to address that need by creating a Philippine Medical Academy and establishing a Philippine Medical Scholarship and Service Program.

The Academy shall provide the institutional mechanism for the envisioned sustained human resource development for the Philippine public health care system. The scholarship program shall provide the financial and other educational resource support mechanisms for the pursuit of studies in the field of medicine by deserving and qualified young people. The University of the Philippines, through its College of Medicine, shall serve as the institutional core or principal medical educational institution where grantees or scholars of the program shall pursue their medical training and studies. Other colleges and universities nationwide shall be accredited to serve as adjunct medical educational institutions to provide medical training to scholars.

The government shall provide the physical, technical and financial resources to equip, man, and develop the U.P. College of Medicine as the institutional core of the Philippine Medical Academy. It shall also provide funds to pay for all the necessary expenses such as tuition, matriculation and all other school fees, prescribed textbooks and other educational supplies and equipments, board and lodging expenses, clothing and uniform allowances, traveling expenses and other related miscellaneous living allowances of qualified entrants to the Philippine Medical Academy and recipients of the scholarship program.

It is envisioned that a scholar shall undergo higher post-graduate internship in a public health and medical institution which shall be considered as part of the mandatory public service. Upon passing the medical board examination, the scholar shall commence integration into the public health service system and shall accordingly be given the appropriate rank and salary. Such integration into the public service system shall be required for a period equivalent to at least one (1) year for each year of scholarship benefits received.

The Academy, the Scholarship and Service programs shall be administered by a Board empowered to formulate and implement policies, rules and regulations, and all such other activities for the effective management and development of the programs.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
