HOUSE BILL NO. _____

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to convert the Bayog National High School into a technical-vocational high school to be known as Bayog Technical-Vocational High School in the Municipality of Bayog, Zamboanga del Sur.

The objective is to be in consonance with the "Enhanced Basic Education Act of 2013", otherwise known as "K to 12" and the ladderized system of education that is being institutionalized.

A technical-vocational (tech-voc) high school will serve as a platform for the convergence of tech-voc and other higher education tracts.

For the past 10 years, our job market needs workers that are skilled to fill the vacancies for blue collar jobs. Blue Collar job vacancies turn out to be low in recruitment because most of our graduates pursue higher education courses like Nursing, Business and Information Technology courses, rather than technical vocational courses like Welding, Cabinet Making and machine job related courses.

In order to encourage high school graduates to pursue career for blue collar jobs, to appreciate and experience hands-on skills education and training, and discover that they have the good manual dexterity in the field of technical-vocational courses, I therefore seek the immediate passage of this bill.
