HOUSE BILL No. 2116

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVE ANTONINO G. CALIXTO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Pasay City North High School-Tramo Campus is one of the four Campuses of the Pasay City North High School. The said school was located at Tramo Street, Barangay 57, Pasay City. The School was formerly part of the Philippine Air Force College of Aeronautics as its High School Department until 1989 when the supervision of the High School Department transferred to the Department of Education. The name of the school was thereby changed to Pasay City National High School but later renamed to its current name. Originally, the Main Campus of the said school was in Tramo but in 2010, the Main Campus was transferred to M. Dela Cruz, which still stands today. Currently, the Tramo Campus serves as the Annex of the School.

The school as an annex campus still has no separated plantilla of items from Pasay City North High School – M. dela Cruz (as Main Campus) for items of School Principal, teaching and non-teaching personnel/staff. Some teacher-items of the teacher teaching presently at the school were borrowed from the plantilla items of nationally funded high schools in the city; thus, they can be requested to go back anytime as needed to the school where the plantilla items were taken. Also, the teachers could be deprived of being promoted because of the absence of plantilla items in their current station.

In view of the said reasons, this Bill seeks to separate the Pasay City North High School – Tramo Campus to Pasay City North High School and to convert it into an independent national high school and shall be renamed as the Pasay City National High School in order to accommodate the growing number of students enrolled in the Tramo area.

The separation of the school to Pasay City North High School shall give them the opportunity to further enhance their programs and projects that will develop the learning and competitiveness of their students and promote other specialized K-12 Tracks to their students.

The passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
