HOUSE BILL NO. 1329

Introduced by Representative WESLIE T. GATCHALIAN

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seek separate the Malanday High School Annex from Polo National High School – Malanday Annex and convert the high school annex into a separate high school to be known as Malanday National High School.

Last school year 2015-2016, Polo National High School – Malanday Annex has become operational.

The school is also complete in its facilities like activity center, and a library.

The opening of the said High School along MH Del Pilar St., Barangay Malanday, Valenzuela City is aimed at providing the residents of Brgy. Malanday and its nearby barangays an accessible education. In particular, the proposed Malanday National High School can also provide the secondary education to around five (5) nearby public elementary schools and four (4) private Schools.

The proposed Malanday High School is also easily accessible by ordinary mode of transportation.

Foregoing considered, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
