

REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Manila

SEVENTEENTH CONGRESS
FIRST REGULAR SESSION

House Bill No. 3880

Introduced by: Rep. GREG G. GASATAYA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Our Constitution mandates the inculcation of patriotism and nationalism among our citizens through the appreciation of our history. Certainly, history is an operative tool to fortify a nation and its effective teaching is a prime area of concern. Hence, to stimulate the interests of the students and for them to develop a more profound sympathy to our country and their respective communities, it is but a strategic move to incorporate primary and local sources into classroom discussions.

While Philippine history in its national scope and coverage is being taught in our schools, we cannot also discount the fact that localities are also rich in their respective historical experiences which are equally important to be widely introduced and oriented to the constituents in the locality. It is with the objective of assimilating national historical foundations under the same national pride and prestige, thus, mandating our educational system to integrate local history in our current curricula.

With the firm belief that historical development will make a lot more sense to a student if he sees a local manifestation of it, the approval of this Bill is earnestly sought.
