HOUSE BILL NO. 3098

Introduced by HONORABLE STRIKE B. REVILLA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Central to the enactment of Republic Act No. 10868 or the Centenarians Act of 2016 is the provision of a cash gift amounting to PhP100,000.00 to Filipino centenarians. This was a widely-celebrated law, manifesting that the State accords due respect, appreciation and importance to our citizens who reach the age of one hundred.

Recent statistics show, however, that many elderly Filipinos do not reach the age of 100, hence unable to enjoy the benefits and privileges of such law. With the rising cost of living and healthcare expenses, most of our senior citizens find it very difficult to afford basic necessities and have to forego expensive medications and procedures. Hence, this bill seeks to amend Republic Act No. 10868 or the Centenarians Act of 2016 by advancing the grant of privileges to our elderlies upon reaching the age of eighty (80), ninety (90), and one hundred (100) respectively. Through this bill, it is hoped that our elderlies may be able to enjoy such entitlements and to assist in further prolonging their lives beyond a century.

Approval of this bill is most earnestly sought.
