EXPLANATORY NOTE

No less than the 1987 Constitution declares, Section 22, Article II thereof, declares that "(t)he State recognizes and promotes the rights of indigenous cultural communities within the framework of national unity and development."

As a concrete step towards the recognition and promotion of all the rights of Indigenous Cultural Communities/Indigenous Peoples (ICCs/IPs) within the framework of the Constitution as well as RA No. 8371, otherwise known as the Indigenous Peoples Rights Act, this bill seeks to create a Department of Indigenous Peoples (DIP), which shall become primary government agency tasked to formulate and implement the national policies, plans, and programs relating to the rights of ICCs/IPs.

Although the National Commission on Indigenous Peoples (NCIP) is at present performing the functions related to the formulation and implementation of policies, plans and programs to recognize, protect, and promote the rights of ICCs/IPs, a department specifically created for such purpose can further strengthen such formulation and implementation. Towards this end, the DIP shall engage with ICCs/IPs and all levels of Government to improve service delivery and facilitate the development of policy and programs which carry out sustainable economic, environmental, and social benefits to Indigenous communities.

The creation of the DIP will be a significant breakthrough to guarantee the realization of these rights, taking into consideration their customs, traditions, values, beliefs, their rights to their ancestral domains.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
