EXPLANATORY NOTE

Section 11, Article XIII of the 1987 Constitution of the Philippines specifically provides: "The State shall adopt an integrated and comprehensive approach to health development which shall endeavor to make essential goods, health and other social services available to all the people at affordable cost."

Initially known as the Bohol Provincial Hospital,<sup>1</sup> it opened on October 19, 1929 and was originally designed as a Regional Teaching and Training Hospital for Region VII.<sup>2</sup> It was then an eight (8) bed-capacity hospital. The hospital was later named Governor Celestino Gallares Memorial Hospital (GCGMH).<sup>3</sup>

To accommodate the increasing number of patients in Tagbilaran City and in the neighboring municipalities, the bed capacity was increased to one hundred fifty (150), then to two (200) hundred and finally to two hundred twenty five (225) beds under Republic Act No. 7266 which was enacted on March 20, 1992.

For more than twenty (20) years since the enactment of Republic Act 7266, however, the bed capacity of GCGMH has not changed despite the significant change in the number of patients being served by the hospital. Consequently, there is also a need to substantially improve the facilities and services of the hospital as a 'regional teaching and training hospital for Region VII.'

Hence, this bill seeks to increase the bed capacity of Governor Celestino Gallares Memorial Hospital (GCGMH) from two hundred twenty five (225) to five hundred twenty five (525) beds, amending for the purpose Republic Act 7266. In addition, this bill seeks the upgrading of medical facilities and equipment of this level 4 regional hospital.

In the light of the foregoing, and further considering that this bill passed three readings in this House and was transmitted to the Senate, the early passage of this bill is strongly recommended.
