SEVENTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 4146

Introduced by Honorable Carmelo B. Lazatin II

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Under Republic Act No. 6975, otherwise known as the Department of Interior and Local Government Act of 1990, the Philippine National Police (PNP) is tasked to maintain peace and order in the country and to take all necessary steps to ensure public safety, among others. More notably, in light of the recently declared drug war of the current administration of President Rodrigo Duterte, the PNP is at the forefront of apprehending drug elements in the country. Such special task, along with their regular duties, places the security of their persons at risk.

Despite their remarkable feats, members of the PNP are often saddled with low salary, which is not commensurate to their dedication to public service and the hazard their work normally entails. Though the selfless deeds of members of the PNP cannot be measured by any monetary amount, this Bill seeks to commend their exemplary performance by providing for adequate safeguards geared toward the sustainability of their children's education.

Through the provision of scholarship grants to their children, members of the PNP are freed from the burden caused by uncertainties posed by the risky duties they dedicatedly perform.

In view of the foregoing premises, the approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
