HOUSE BILL NO. 4209

Introduced by Honorable Lucy Marie Torres-Gomez

EXPLANATORY NOTE

On November 5, 1991, heavy rains spawned by Tropical Storm Thelma (local name: Typhoon :Oreng") roared down the hills of Ormoc City carrying logs and uprooted trees, and inundated the Ormoc City within an hours or so, one o the most devastating and deadliest tragedies in modern Philippine history occurred. About 8,000 people perished and properties worth millions of pesos were destroyed. An outpouring of sympathy from global community immediately followed.

This bill seek to declare November 5 of every year as special non-working holiday in the City of Ormoc, Province of Leyte, to be known as the Ormoc Flash Flood Memorial day, in honor of all those who died in the tragedy.

Most proposed legislation seek to commemorate foundation days or charters days of localities, epochal events in our history, natal days of prominent personalities, etc. But why memorialize a "tragedy"?

Studies have persistently shown that Philippines is one of the countries in the world most vulnerable to climate changes. Hence adaptation and disaster-mitigation strategies have occupied increasing attention in government policy formulations. Sustainable development with its emphasis on environmental awareness, has become not only a fashionable statement but a life and death struggle in certain especially "at risk" communities. Perhaps, we could not do much regarding unpredictable "Mt. Pinatubo-type of calamities" but we could certainly mitigate if not prevent the effects of another "Ormoc Disaster."

In view of the foregoing, the early approval of this bill is earnestly requested.
