House Bill No. 5544

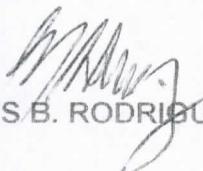

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Section 1, Article XIV of the 1987 Constitution provides that, "The State shall protect and promote the right of all citizens to quality education at all levels, and shall take appropriate steps to make such education accessible to all."

The right guaranteed by the Constitution does not make any qualifications. As such, children have a right to education regardless of their situation. According to the Department of Education (DepEd), only 2 percent of the 5.49 million children with special needs (CSN) are getting government assistance. There are instances where parents are the ones who keep their CSN out of school because various reasons including discrimination and bullying. Further, drop-out rates among CSN are relatively high because special education (SPED) is often too expensive for an average Filipino family.

As such, this bill which aims to make special education more accessible to CSN, and facilitate their inclusion and integration with mainstream education.

In view of the foregoing, immediate approval of this measure is earnestly requested.
