

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City

EIGHTEENTH (18th) CONGRESS
First Regular Session
160
HOUSE BILL NO. _____

Introduced by REP. JOSE CHRISTOPHER Y. BELMONTE

EXPLANATORY NOTE

In the 15th Congress, House Bill No. 515 entitled “An Act Prohibiting Discrimination on the Basis of Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity and Providing Penalties Therefor” was originally filed by Rep. Kaka Bag-ao. The same measure was yet again filed on the 16th Congress by Rep. Kaka Bag-ao as House Bill No. 110 and by Rep. Sol Aragones at House Bill No. 342.

In the 17th Congress, House Bill No. 4982 entitled “An Act Prohibiting Discrimination on the Basis of Sexual Orientation or Gender Identity or Expression (SOGIE) And Providing Penalties Therefor” is a consolidation of several house bills originally filed as House Bill No. 51 by Rep. Kaka Bag-ao, House Bill No. 267 by Rep. Geraldine Roman, and House Bill No. 1108 by Rep. Teddy Brawner Baguilat, Jr. It was in the 17th Congress that the pivotal measure reached a momentous phase upon its passage on 3rd Reading and its transmittance to the Senate.

This measure asserts Section 11, Article II of the 1987 Constitution, where it is the policy of the State to value the dignity of every human person and guarantee full respect for their human rights. This legislation is also an articulation of the equal protection clause in Article III or the Bill of Rights. This bill seeks to augment and rectify anti-discriminatory policies enshrined in other existing laws such as Republic Act No. 9710 or the “Magna Carta of Women”, Republic Act No. 8551 or the “Philippine National Police Reform and Reorganization Act of 1998” and Republic Act No. 10627 or the “Anti-Bullying Act of 2013”.

Several local government units have enacted their own local ordinances protecting members of the LGBTQ+ community from discrimination on the basis of their SOGIE. This includes 18 cities, one municipality, three barangays, and six provinces with their own anti-discrimination policy, serving a mere quarter of the country’s population.¹ While some battles are won in the local level, the lack of a national anti-discrimination law remains a challenge in actualizing SOGIE equality. For one, victims cannot claim redress under these local ordinances without an ancillary Implementing Rules and Regulations.² So far, only the Quezon City Gender Fair Ordinance has its own IRR.

Despite the manifestation of political will by some lawmakers, the deeply ingrained heteronormative practices subdue the basic human rights and fundamental freedoms long fought for by the LGBTQ+ community. Prejudiced and even denunciatory acts are still practiced in workplaces, schools, commercial establishments, public service, and other institutions and public spaces.³ There is a need to overturn how our very own institutions have treated LGBTQ+ as lepers—isolated and beneath the rule of law. In light of this, an appropriate legislative measure has yet to be enacted to guarantee the protection of LGBTQ+ people across all spaces in the country.

In view of the foregoing, immediate approval of this measure is earnestly sought.
