Republic of the Philippines HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Quezon City

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 650

Introduced by HON. JOY MYRA S. TAMBUNTING

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to change the term of office of all barangay officials from three (3) years to five (5) years, amending for the purpose Republic Act No. 7160 otherwise known as the Local Government Code. The said extension is deemed necessary in order to ensure that the programs of the barangays are properly carried out.

The barangay is the smallest unit of the government. As defined by the Local Government Code, it serves as the primary planning and implementing unit of government policies, plans, programs, projects, and activities in the community, and as a forum wherein the collective views of the people may be expressed, crystallized and considered, and where disputes may be amicably settled.

However, because of the three-year term, barangay officials rarely finish the programs they intend to accomplish at the start of their term because the major reforms in their barangays need more time to come into fruition. It becomes of paramount importance, therefore, that the term be extended to five years.

Moreover, the extension of the term of the barangay officials will greatly reduce the expenses used for local elections. With 42,036 barangays nationwide, holding of said elections costs the government a great deal of money, which if saved, can be put to use for other important government projects and programs.
