AN ACT

EXCLUDING FROM THE APPLICATION OF THE INDETERMINATE SENTENCE LAW THOSE CONVICTED OF CRIMINAL OFFENSES AGAINST A MINOR, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE ACT NO. 4103 OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE INDETERMINATE SENTENCE LAW

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The proposal has been filed in the previous Congresses and this Representation deems it just that the proposal must be reconsidered in this Congress. The bill seeks to amend Republic Act No. 4103 also known as the Indeterminate Sentence Law. It proposes to include criminal offenses against minors in the enumeration of certain crimes to which the provisions of the Act do not apply.

It is paramount for a society to protect those who are helpless, which in this proposal focuses on children. Those that are subject to abuse and ill-treatment must be protected in order to deter individuals from perpetuating abuse and take advantage of their vulnerability.

The application of this Law is mandatory except to cases expressly excluded by the law. This proposal intends to add several instances to the list of excluded cases in the application of the Indeterminate Sentence Law.

The nature of seriousness of the offense committed against a minor justifies it inclusion on the enumeration in Sec. 2. of RA 4103. In this regard, the indeterminate sentence law shall not apply to those who have been convicted of offenses against minor, which is comparable to or analogous to any of the following: kidnapping of a minor, except by a parent; false imprisonment of a minor or sexual conduct to the same among others.

In view hereof, passage of the bill is earnestly sought.
