WILLS AND WEEK SERVICE

Introduced by Representative MARLYN L. PRIMICIAS-AGABAS

AN ACT AMENDING SECTION 10 OF REPUBLIC ACT NO. 8239 OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE "PHILIPPINE PASSPORT ACT OF 1996"

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The right to travel is enshrined in the 1987 Philippine Constitution. As such, Filipinos, not otherwise prohibited or restrained by law, may travel and move freely to visit and work in other countries.

However, under Republic Act No. 8239 otherwise known as the "Philippine Passport Act of 1996", the validity of the Philippine passport is only five (5) years. This period seems to be too short for the Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs), travelers and tourists alike, that they are required to renew their passport before the expiration of the period of validity of their respective passports, making this requirement costly and cumbersome for the Filipinos.

This bill proposes to make the Philippine passport valid for ten (10) years. It is aimed to better serve the Filipinos by streamlining the process and making the passport validity longer, thereby allowing more time for Filipinos to enjoy the unimpaired right to travel.

In view of the foregoing, the prompt and timely passage of the proposal is earnestly requested.
